

YEAR BOOK

JUNE 1941

Bill Bardet

June 16, 1941

Under the Editorship of MARY PAT MacWILLIAMS

Assisted By

FRED LYON

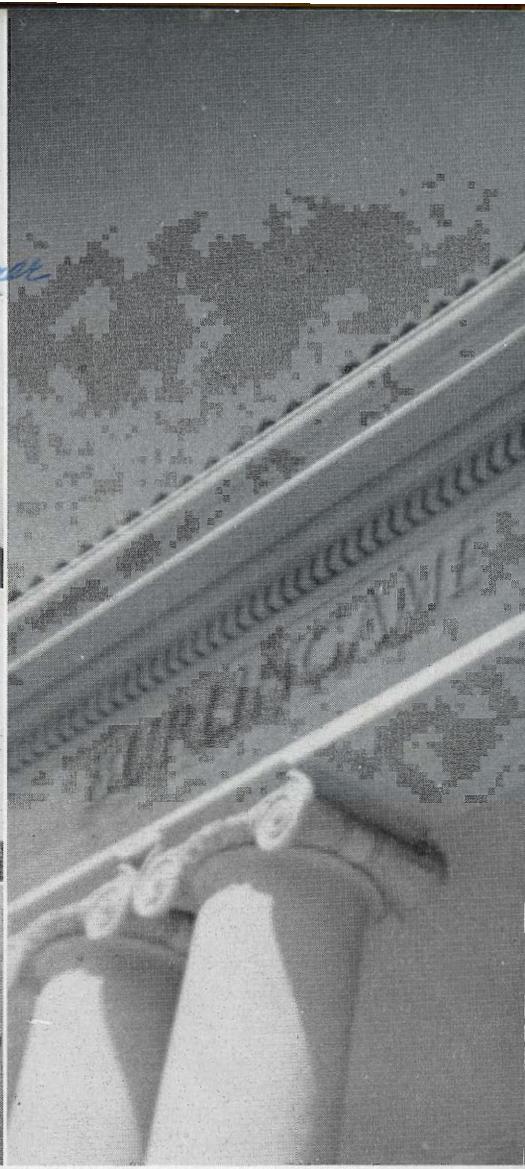

HELENE HARVEY, RUTH SWANSON, JACK TARBILL, ADRIAN WINKLER, EVELYN MOOSE, BETTY HEERMANN, NADINE O'BRIEN.

SUMNER DEANE, Faculty Adviser

BURLINGAME HIGH SCHOOL

Burlingame, California

ABBOTT, BOB
ALDRICH, BILL
ANDERSON, DRURY
ARMSTRONG, BOB

ARNOLD, VIRGINIA
BARDET, BILL
BARRY, JOAN
BEGGS, DOROTHY

BETTIS, JACK
BETTINCOURT, THELMA
BLAIR, BETTY
BLAIR, EDITH

BLOOMER, SAM
BOLDEMAN, BARRY
BOURET, PIERRE
BOWMAN, VIRGINIA

A. Blanc

ABBOTT, BOB

"Rabbit" Abbott has a great yen for models—(airplanes, trains, and especially the two-legged species). He spends a great deal of his time being quiet, but nevertheless he is a great deal of fun.

ALDRICH, BILL

This is a fellow whose ambition is to be a mechanic. At the present time he is beating a path toward this goal by spending his spare time tinkering with cars to see what makes them run.

ANDERSON, DRURY

Georgie Porgy, pie 'n' puddin'
Kissed the girls and knew he shouldn't—
When he felt a connoisseur he Met a snappy blonde, Drury!

ARMSTRONG, BOB

It's Bob's irresistible smile and not his strong arm that has made him the vice-president and the indisputable Lord Byron of the school. Bob has never had to work for a date. He's the guy that landed six invitations to the same dance.

ARNOLD, VIRGINIA

Small in stature, but big in heart is Ginger. She's quiet at first, but just get to know this swell little blue-eyed blonde with a keen disposition and you're "all set."

BARDET, BILL

Bill is one fellow who makes many a feminine heart beat faster as he passes. Dark hair and dark eyes to match, he rates as a champion councilman and as an amateur "Photog". You can often see him snapping fellows and gals around school.

BARRY, JOAN

Pep, ambition, cheerfulness and personality plus really describes "Barry" to a "T". She's outstanding in sports, and her broad grin and cheery "Hi" have won her a place on the Senior Cabinet as secretary.

BEGGS, DOROTHY

Here's an amiable gal with dark eyes and auburn hair, who goes in for "Hot" records. Dot's serious at times, but she usually simply bubbles over with mirth. Her friendly attitude and merriness have won her many friends.

BETTIS, JACK

Although his ambition is to be a doctor, he could become "ruthless" and change his profession to law. At the present time, Jack is studying in the latter field rather than the former, as everyone can testify.

BETTINCOURT, THELMA

Her pretty red hair is her outstanding feature and has won her the nickname of "Red." She enjoys reading and goes in for sports. In later life she is going to be some lucky guy's secretary.

BLAIR, BETTY

This identical twin has very individual aspirations: to be a bacteriologist and to attend Stanford University. If you call her Edith she'll gaily correct you—or pretend to be her sister.

BLAIR, EDITH

Equally as attractive as her sister is Edith, friendly, blue-eyed, and a "strawberry blonde." Bright and eager, if she can't find fun she'll make it by quoting a Bob Hope pun or something original.

BLOOMER, SAM

The man behind the Pepsodent smile, behind the steering wheel of the green V8 (stands for Vibr-ate) is one of the sunniest, most cheerful characters around B'lingum and vicinity. Speaking of weather, when guys like Sammy are around, it's always hailing fellows well met.

BOLDEMAN, BARRY

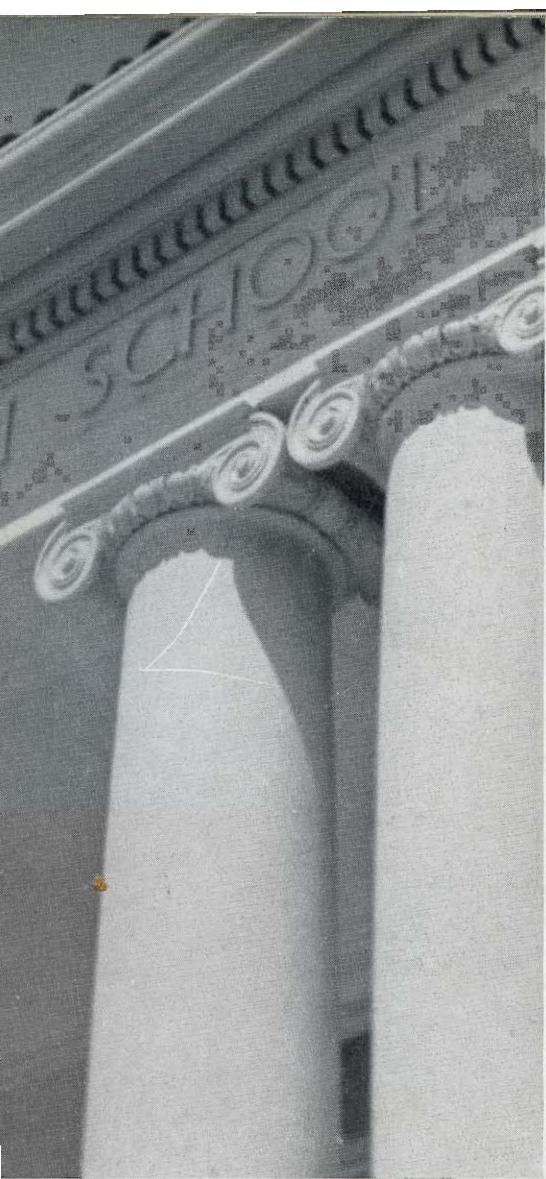

A potential member of the Drama Commission, Barry has acquired a reputation in dramatics during his four years in high school. Although he attends B.H.S., he could pass for the Pied Piper of Hamelin.

BOURET, PIERRE

A public speaker and winner of many prizes is "Demosthenes" Bouret. Pete is the able editor of the Radio-Cinema Bulletin and each week supplies us with a list of the best radio and movie programs. Do you practice what you preach, Pierre?

BOWMAN, VIRGINIA

Prominent in girls' athletics and as a member of the Block B is friendly Ginger. She's tops in swimming, badminton, basketball, and all-around athletics. She's so full of fun and eager to help that we love to have her around.

BRILLIANT, CAROL
BROCKHOUSE, JACK
BUMP, BETTY
BURNETT, ANDREW

BURNS, JEAN BUROW, DICK BUSEY, BOB CAMERON, DON

CARLISLE, BUD
CHAMBERLAIN, BETTY
COATES, GLORIA
CHU, DONALD

COLLINS, PAT
COE, CHARLES
CONVERSE, DICK
COSGRIFF, TOD

BRILLIANT, CAROL
 Dark, slender, and on the sophisticated side is "Cookie." Friendly and witty, she never fails to draw numerous pals. She's the gal who "knows all," for among her many accomplishments is that of being Recording Commissioner.

BROCKHOUSE, JACK
 An industrious member of our senior cabinet, Jack's main interest lies in the field of physics. He spends much of his time in the "lab" pondering over each and every tough experiment.

BUMP, BETTY
 The old adage, "Good things come in small packages," must have been inspired by Betty. Talented? We should say so! She has gained prominence through her individual poetry, her clever writing, her soft soprano, and, above all, her jolly self.

BURNETT, ANDREW
 Andy has those captivating qualities that make him a friend of everyone. His unassuming attitude helps make sixth-period Senior Problems class restful on warm days.

BURNS, JEAN
 Here's a girl with sparkling eyes and a real sense of humor. Burnsie's good-natured personality has helped make her one of the outstanding girls in our senior class.

BUROW, DICK
 The finesse and eclat our student-body prexy puts into, "Assembly adjourned to your third-period classes" must keep hundreds from cutting those morning meetings. Anyway, it's certain his feminine constituents listen raptly to every jeweled word as BHS's All-American Boy mounts the rostrum.

BUSEY, BOB
 This happy-go-lucky fellow is one great tennis player. With tawny hair and a fan to match he is a fella we are glad to have in our company.

CAMERON, DON
 Familiar to football fans is the name of this blondish lady-killer. Also, it must be familiar by now to a certain little red-headed co-ed.

CARLISLE, BUD
 Forrest Ward Carlisle is the complete handle of the tall good-looking sports editor of the "B." Well known in the journalistic world, Bud is an important member of the Quill and Scroll. In his spare time he sends forth little "Raes" of sunshine into a troubled world.

CHAMBERLAIN, BETTY
 Our able Commissioner of School Affairs is Betty. She's the little lady with the beauty mark, and, boy—she is "some honey." Outside of school, Betty spends much of her time on the J.C. and Stanford Campuses.

COATES, GLORIA
 "Glor" stormed the school as a low freshman with a hilarious monologue, "Pigtail Days," and has never ceased being a center of popularity and fun. Most amiable and cooperative, she is secretary of the A.G.S.

CHU, DONALD
 Wherever you find a picture with a lake, a tree, a hill, and some sky, you'll be sure to find artist Don wielding a mean brush. An "A" student in all of "Mac's" culture courses, Don is preparing himself for his vagabonding in a tramp steamer when he graduates.

COLLINS, PAT
 Short, blonde Pat is lively and full of fun. She writes on the "B," and you really should see her on ice (skates)—one of her new hobbies.

COE, CHARLES
 Say, who's that good-looking fellow? Why that's Charles Coe. You can see him almost any week-end during the winter, skiing for all he's worth. While at home, he runs around town in a shining '41 Buick. Girls, what's holding you back?

CONVERSE, DICK
 Although his picture is deceiving, Dick really is a tall, dark, and handsome fellow. His ambition is to enter Annapolis; so he is building up for it by spending his spare time sailing around the bay as a sea-scout.

COSGRIFF, TOD
 Although no one knows Tod as "Edward," which is his real name, we all do know him as that swell pal who drives around in a smooth Ford convert.

COSTA, BERNICE
COTE, BUD
COUVRETTE, JANE
CROSS, CHARLES

CROWE, LLOYD
CUMMINGS, ANN
DAVIS, BARBARA
DICKSON, HELEN

DOOHER, JANE
DORMEYER, DAVE
DOSS, VIRGINIA
DOUGLAS, LORRAINE

DOYLE, BETTY
DUNN, GLENN
EACHUS, FRANKLIN
EDDINGFIELD, BETTY JANE

COSTA, BERNICE

Tall, dark Bernice is called "Pete" by all her friends. She studies stenography, bookkeeping, and really goes in for that type of work.

COTE, BUD

Coty is a fella who surely shines in the sport world. A "wow" of a backfield man and an equally great basketballer, Bud has made a name for himself that will rank high among other sportsmen at B.H.S.

COUVRETTE, JANE

Jane is our idea of a Mlle.—flashing eyes, black hair, French name, ability to read French, and a love of clothes. Yet with all this she swears she hasn't French blood. She's peppy and lively and goes in for boys whose first names begin with "T."

CROSS, CHARLES

Be-e-autiful big, blue blinkers and a tricky way with the women has made "Chuck" a man we just can't do without; but he just crows with delight whenever he gets a date. Besides these great qualities he is one of the popular co-presidents of our senior class.

CROWE, LLOYD

A favorite with all discriminating males is this '41-model charmer with the soft voice, friendly smile, and ready wit. In fact, even girls can't help liking Barbara—er,—Lloyd.

CUMMINGS, ANN

Ann is tall, blonde, and very quiet. She goes in for reading, and sees almost every show that comes to town. She plans to be a secretary in later life and will make a very efficient one.

DAVIS, BARBARA

Barbara is not only a member of the school's intelligentsia (being a gold seal student), but she is fortunate enough to be blessed with the rare gift of dark eyes and raven tresses.

DICKSON, HELEN

Dickie's ambition is to be an actress. She has been accumulating valuable experience along this line as a hardworking assistant Drama Commissioner. She has also been active in sports, and has attained a "Block B." Her sunny disposition and infectious smile will long be remembered by us all.

DOOHER, JANE

Quiet and retiring though she is, Jane is one of our most active and charming members. She has done outstanding work both in drama and journalism. We can't decide what color her eyes are, but her lashes are the most luxuriant in the class.

DORMEYER, DAVE

The tall, lanky boy with the catchy smile and a talent for writing feature-stories is Dave. He likes all sports, but not being entirely athletic, he also pens experiments and studies tough physics.

DOSS, VIRGINIA

Ginny's ambition, for which she studies diligently, is to be a private secretary. One would scarcely think that a head as pretty as hers could be so engrossed in shorthand. It will be a lucky guy who gets to boss Virginia around.

DOUGLAS, LORRAINE

A cheery "hello," and every senior knows that chummy Lorraine is near. Athletics and music are her pet loves. Short brown hair and twinkling blue eyes are listed among her attractions.

DOYLE, BETTY

A comedienne par excellence is this willowy dark-haired lass. When Doyle twists her expressive mouth into an original Doyle contortion and declaims with appropriate gestures: "What a panic! What a panic!"

DUNN, GLENN

Good-natured and likeable are the two best adjectives for the second of the three DUNNs. With these assets he should bid fair to become his success his brother Jim is at Cal.

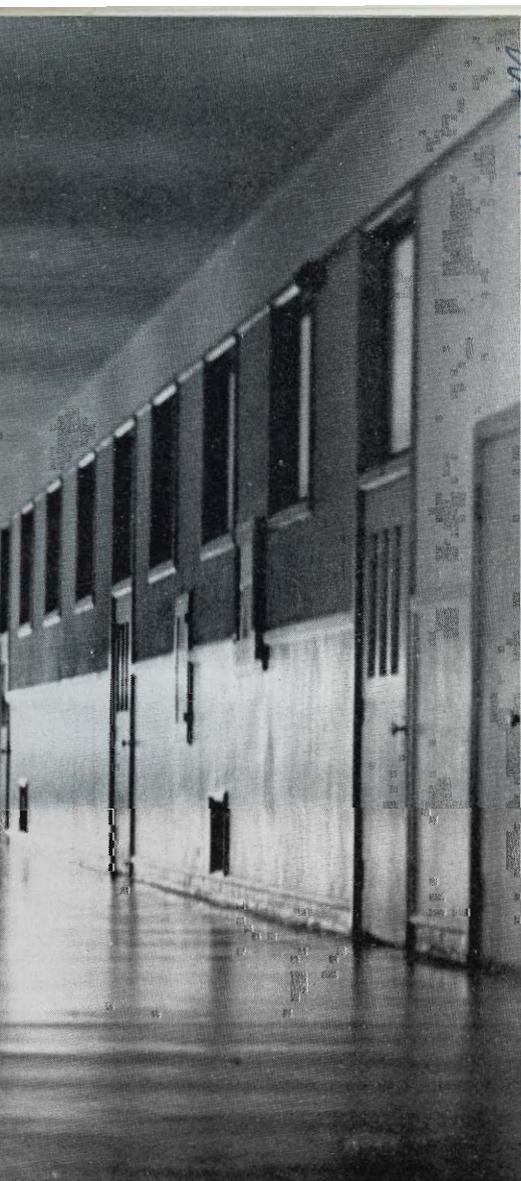

EACHUS, FRANKLIN

Frankie should have changed his name to Don Juan when he reached these portals of learning for if anyone fits this title, we nominate him. Distinctively Latin looking, he prefers brunettes to blondes, but all the blondes, brunettes and redheads prefer him.

EDDINGFIELD, BETTY JANE

An engaging grin and a pair of roguish brown eyes help explain this gal's popularity. "Wisdom, Wit, and Grace," but better than these is "pep," of which Betty Jane has enough for two. She is particularly fond of wearing boys' sweaters, chewing aspirins, and being called "B.J."

B.J. Eddingfield

EISEN, MEL
ELLIS, BERNARDINE
ENNIS, SUZANNE
FENA, PETER

FISHEL, BARBARA FULLER, EARL
GALLAGHER, EUGENE
GAYLORD, DON

GEORGE, DON
GIBSON, BOB HAIGHT, BRUCE
HALL, MARGARET

HANCHETT, GLORIA
HANKO, BOB
HARDMAN, DORIS HARRISON, NEWTON

EISEN, MEL

The wit of his crowd, Mel drives fast and furious, dances like a whiz, and is a right smart football player. He can tell a lot about Sequoia and Redwood City, and it isn't the climate.

ELLIS, BERNARDINE

Bernardine should be awarded one medal at least for rescuing the lost souls with requests for money in the bookkeeping room. At this rate she could either become a famous evangelist or a business tycoon. Why don't you try combining them, Bernardine, or are we being too silly?

ENNIS, SUZANNE

Looking at "Sweet Sue" makes us think of "peaches and cream" (if you pardon the cliché). According to Mr. Deane she ought to be married before she's out of high school a year. We can understand his point of view.

FENA, PETER

A big man in the sports world, in the MTC, and through the waist is Mighty Pete. Tough, but oh so gentle (off the gridiron).

FISHEL, BARBARA

"Bobbie" has a dry, salty sense of humor and a magnificent vocabulary, which makes her conversation something to be treasured. Her wit is as sharp as a dentist's, and the grier the better, long words, and "fish" with it.

FULLER, EARL

That friendly grin brightening up the physics lab of a rainy afternoon belongs to the able young physicist who dashes off whole experiments while we are still sagging around looking vaguely for an optical bench (to rest our eyes on, of course).

GALLAGHER, EUGENE

A friendly, likeable young man whose modesty belies the fact that he has royal blood coursing through his veins, arteries, and capillaries.

GAYLORD, DON

This blond Casanova with the sporty little coupe and the way with the women needs no introduction (introductions always were a waste of time anyway) to fun-loving femmes.

GEORGE, DON

Don is part of the physics team of George & Brockhous and the romance team of George and Company (the company varies from time to time, but it is always well-chosen).

GIBSON, BOB

If you look upward from the most beautiful pair of cowboy boots in these parts, you'll find yourself gazing into the smiling face of Bob "Hoot" Gibson himself.

HAIGHT, BRUCE

The fellow who gives the scholars the nod back to the boys, the ABS red-ink tank top to the starlets, who goes back to the fish, and the ton-rom back to the Indians.

HALL, MARGARET

Margaret's demure expression and shy manner belie her auburn locks. For many years she has studied the piano and clarinet. Music hath charm, but she has charm and music too.

HANCHETT, GLORIA

Gloria is noted for her angora sweaters, her sunny disposition, and—yes, she has a yacht. You will usually find her with two or three Betyss. She admits her nickname is "Cork," but refuses to tell why. We give up. You figure it out.

HANKO, BOB

Bob is a canny "Quiz Kid," an uncanny magician, and a happy sort of guy, whose acquaintance is a friend. Anything difficult doesn't stump him; instead Bob just tackles it with determination and mumbles, "Where there is a will there is a way."

HARDMAN, DORIS

A sweet smile, a soft voice, always considerate and sympathetic—that's our way of describing her. She is always willing to lend a hand where it's most needed. Doris rates a gold seal for more than scholastic achievement.

HARRISON, NEWTON

He's the cheerful looking character who's a dead ringer for a certain movie star—you know, that comic relief who keeps the Dead End Kids alive.

HARVEY, HELENE
HEERMANN, BETTY
HOBBS, JOE
HUBBENETTE, LORRAINE

JENKINS, BOB
JOHNSTON, LELAND
JONES, AUDREY
JORGENSEN, FLORENCE

KAHLOR, RONALD KELL, JEAN
KEMP, BARBARA
KRANZ, BOB

LA COMBLE, CORRINNE
LANDIS, JOHN
LANG, DORIS LARSON, WILLIE

HARVEY, HELENE

When Helene is around, there is never a dull moment. She is the best rug cutter to be found in the senior class and one of the best sports to be found anywhere. If you're feeling bored and looking for fun, count on Helene.

HEERMANN, BETTY

A slick dancer, and can she roll 'dem eyes! "Bet" has the equally attractive point of being a smooth talker. Remember Public Speaking? She's witty, gay, and soothing to every ear.

HEINZ, RALPH NO PICTURE

Is that grease on this lad's hands? Sure 'nough, because he spends a great deal of his time taking apart and putting together his automobile.

HOBBS, JOE

If you have a car that won't run, a wallet that won't give out, and a brain that won't function, take the former to Joe, and he'll fix it. (The latter defect is probably permanent, or he'd fix that too.)

HUBBENETTE, LORRAINE

Lorraine is a petite blonde with twinkling blue eyes and dimples. Her favorite pastime, knitting, was not inspired by the British Aid. (How did he like it Lorraine?) If you're opposed to formality, her two favorite nicknames are Blondie and Bright Eyes.

JENKINS, BOB

Bob is the source of one of the most rapidly circulated gold footballs in the school. His secret success formula? Probably that winning smile, or is it his winning way on the gridiron?

JOHNSTON, LELAND

A slap-happy puss, atop a lanky figure, plus a supercharged sense of humor, equal one of the quaintest of our senior characters about school.

JONES, AUDREY

Audrey has a sparkling personality, a gorgeous smile; and can that girl cook? Some one must have told her about the way to a man's heart at an early age. Her other interest is football, especially a certain gold football.

JORGENSEN, FLORENCE

Florence's favorite pastime is writing beginnings for several Great American Novels. Her ambition is someday to write a book that will sell more copies than "Gone With the Wind." Well, Florence, we wish you luck.

KAHLOR, RONALD

The popular and able head of Burlingame's fast-growing Military Training Corps is also, when off duty, an all-around good fellow.

KELL, JEAN

Saucy green eyes and an impish smile helped to introduce this beauty as a very welcome girl from New York. It looks as if she will have a brilliant future in this neighborhood.

KEMP, BARBARA

"Sweet simplicity and a bewildering smile" means Barbara Kemp, but she also possesses the most beautiful hands and one of the smartest wardrobes on the campus. The wistful appeal of her enormous grey-blue eyes has caused many a local lad to regret the Draft.

KLANN, JUNE NO PICTURE

If grades were given for a sweet sense of humor, here, indeed, would we have an honor student. When any of June's numerous friends wish to find her, they always look in her favorite location—between the Blair twins. Poor June always sees double.

KRANZ, BOB

This is that happy-looking chap with the grin like the Grand Canyon, eyes like the Great Lakes, and a coupe like a handsome egg-beater (only you can at least beat eggs with an egg-beater).

LA COMBLE, CORRINNE

Gay and unpredictable Corinne is the sophisticate of the class. She holds the record for being the most widely traveled senior. Her main interests are Freud, Ogden Nash, and her violin.

LANDIS, JOHN

Study carefully the adjoining portrait and see if you don't think the guy looks like David Niven (all the girls are saying it, David—I mean Johnny). Honest John transferred here from Chicago last fall and since then has made mobs of friends.

LANG, DORIS

To those who don't know her, Doris seems quiet and reserved, but this dark-haired, attractive lass will make someone in business a fine assistant. Her likeable traits make her remembered, although she has been with us for only two years.

LARSON, WILLIE

Maybe it was his mother who started it, but anyway he's Willie to all his friends. He's also a track man and sole owner of a spiffy '36 Ford coupe. We wonder if he got his peroxide blonde hair from the sun or the cinder path?

LAW, RUTH LEACH, DICK
LE BRUN, JACK
LEWIS, JANE ELLEN

LITTMAN, BOB
LYON, FRED
MACWILLIAMS, MARY PAT
MALQUIST, GRANT

MANLEY, DERRILL
MARTIN, LUDOLPH
MASKELL, THEADATE
MATSCHULLAT, RAY

MCDONALD, ANNA LEA MCCARTHY, BOB
MAYER, RALSTON
MCGUIRE, MAXINE

LAW, RUTH
Winsome and "woo-some" are two good words for Ruth, and a safe "Bet'tis" that a certain boy named Jack wouldn't argue with you about that. You can always recognize her, because she's never without a hair-bow, dark nail polish, and Betty Jane Eddingfield.

LEACH, DICK
Man-about town Leach is the possessor of that roadster with the livingroom-rug upholstery and kitchen-stove engine. There usually are a girl or three sitting on the livingroom-rug and warming her (or their) feet on the kitchen stove.

LE BRUN, JACK
This little smiling fellow must have a touch of genius somewhere, because we remember him as the iron-handed ruler of boisterous Club 14 who managed to keep the entire Coté-Trolesi-Rafael fraternity in something vaguely resembling order. Sometimes he could even keep Mr. Keeler quiet.

LEWIS, JANE ELLEN
Soft, light-brown hair and a warm, friendly smile are owned by this lovely miss. Jane (oops! we almost said Ellen) feels that iced-skating, milk, and spun steak sandwiches make life worth living.

LITTMAN, BOB
Bob's that big redhead with the football build who sings a snappy locker-room tenor and divides his spare time between captivating the feminine population and ushering at the Baywood.

LYON, FRED
(1) A photofriend, (2) a ladies' man, (3) an actor, (4) a wit, and (5) a great guy in bed, Fred is famous for his activities concerning point No. 1. (Not to mention, of course, point No. 2).

MACWILLIAMS, MARY PAT
If you see a little sandy-colored brunette with vim, vigor, and vitality, a merry laugh, and a little wrinkled nose go dashing by, that's Mary Pat on the way to one of her many activities—she's really been a hit in her two years with us.

MALQUIST, GRANT
The young curly-haired casanovica who surprised everybody by being a high senior when roll was first taken. Among other things he has clear title to a certain blonde soph.

MANLEY, DERRILL
Derrill, alias "Derk," alias "Jerk," is the wild Westerner from Arizona who is responsible for (1) a distinct change in masculine clothing, jeans being substituted for slacks, boots for shoes; (2) a trend toward the border country in local dialect; and (3) hundreds of women leaving home.

MARTIN, LUDOLPH
Can't help calling him "Lewd" for short, though it's only for short. He's the tall young man with the brown suit and tie and the mysterious bulging brown brief case, looking more like a business man than a mere student.

MASKELL, THEADATE
All we can say for Teddy is she is "Bill-ding" up to an awful let-down, but we say that only to get in the pun. With all kidding aside this is one girl who has fun at everything she does. "Laugh and the world laughs with you" is her cheerful motto.

MATSCHULLAT, RAY
Oh, take careful notice of the Thespian! Ray acts and lays them in the aisles. Heavy of limb and quick of tongue, his husky voice can be heard in any group. He'll show you how to do the La Conga; ask him sometime.

MCDONALD, ANNA LEA
Blonde Anna Lea captured the hearts of all the Fiesta Fans with her rare photogenic qualities that'll take her far. A personality plus, a quick wit, and definitely classed as a killer-diller with the fellas.

MCCARTHY, BOB
Little would you expect this jovial lad to have such serious ambitions in the engineering line, for wherever you find a conga line there will be Bob with his rhythmical feet—size 13.

MAYER, RALSTON
Rusty is well known among his classmates, ever-present are his broad friendly grin and that twinkle in his blue eyes, and we can't forget "Baby Dumpling" on Senior Dress-up Day.

MCGUIRE, MAXINE
Maxine has those capable qualities that make her a leader—AGS Publicity Chairman and Rainbow Worthy Advisor. She loves to dance, ride, and swim if—and we said if—it's with George.

McINERNEY, JIM
McLEAN, GEORGE
McQUAY, GWEN
MERRICK, JEAN

MILLER, VERA
MOGENSEN, BEVERLY MONDECK, JEAN MOOSE, EVELYN

MORRIS, DICK
MORRISON, BARBARA
MULCAHEY, JEANNE
MUZIO, JACK

NAGLE, VIRGINIA
O'BRIEN, NADINE
OHRAN, DON
PANTALEONI, GUIDO

McINERNEY, JIM
 Tall, dark and handsome is Jim McInerney, who has made many a girl's heart beat faster. Outstanding among his many talents is his artistic ability, which he has a chance to display often as a member of the Art Commission.

McLEAN, GEORGE
 Well known and well liked is "Big" George McLean. Added to his friendly personality are his great athletic ability, his power of leadership as ABS President, his curly black hair and Maxine.

McQUAY, GWEN
 Gwen is one of those few people who can crack a joke with a straight face. She likes bridge, hates sports, and drives like mad. Short and cute, "Little Mac" speaks with a quiet little drawl which captivates her many companions.

MERRICK, JEAN
 Though Jean is vivacious and fun-loving, she has a quiet confidence and determination that should carry her far. Her chief interest outside of school is her job, of which she is very proud. Could said job be the reason for the increased attendance at the local theatre?

MILLER, VERA
 Here's a quiet girl who is really talented in both music and art. She's new at bridge but takes to it like a duck to water. One thing we can't forget is her ambidexterous hands—you know, both left-handed and right-handed.

MOGENSEN, BEVERLY
 Sophisticated Bev is really a corker. She wears clothes like a dream, and when she smiles the photogs come a running. She goes in for records and bridge.

MONDECK, JEAN
 "Still water runs deep" is a poetic phrase that describes this small dark damsel. She is a transfer from Mercy and can most often be seen in the company of a certain lower class girl.

MOOSE, EVELYN
 Eve really has done things with her violin. A member of the orchestra for four years, and now she's Commissioner of Music. She likes to sketch, play badminton and tennis, and they say she's a killer-diller at bridge.

MORRIS, DICK
 Doc is an ardent sports enthusiast and loves to watch baseball games and moving pictures, especially when he can see Ann Sheridan. We approve of his choice.

MORRISON, BARBARA
 Bobbi has perhaps one of the oddest pastimes of all. She chews magazine covers as gum. She loves veal chops, olives and bridge. Always says her hair looks terrible, but every other girl would give plenty for it.

MULCAHEY, JEANNE
 Jeanne's personality and dimples won her a place on the senior cabinet. She likes drama for a hobby; and what can be better than bridge or dancing, although some of her time is spent on tennis courts.

MUZIO, JACK
 One word alone can sum up Jack's interests. He is very active on the baseball team and some day hopes to be in the big league. So there you have a picture of JACK—baseball with a capital "B."

NAGLE, VIRGINIA
 Ginny is a little trick who, with her talent for song writing and her knack of wearing cute clothes, is certainly destined for fame and fortune. Good luck, Ginny, we'll be hearing from you.

O'BRIEN, NADINE
 "Sass" is everybody's pal—tall, blonde, and wants to be a model. She hopes to break into print with her plays and stories. Plays tennis all summer, and if you double her in bridge—look out!

OHRAN, DON
 Don is another man with a personality. He spends most of his time designing and modeling cars. He always watches the planes overhead in an envious manner. Some day we will probably see him soaring above us in a Boeing pursuit plane.

PANTALEONI, GUIDO
 Short, dark Guido possesses two definite talents in the artistic field. The one in the dramatic field, the other at the tip of his paint brush. We can't forget him as the great producer in "Stage Door."

PARKER, JIM
PETERS, JEANETTE
PLATTS, DOROTHY
RANDALL, WALTER

RANKIN, ELEANOR
RASICO, MARION
REYNOLDS, KATHLEEN RICKARD, ERNEST

ROGERS, DOROTHY
RONES, JEANNE
RUBIN, BOB
SCHUMACHER, CHRIS

SEKINS, MARGE
SCHWERIN, BOB
SELBY, JO ANN
SELLECK, JIM

PARKER, JIM
 Quiet but always friendly, this is Jim Parker. He is quite an artist on the piano-accordion. Some day he hopes to be an outstanding chemist, but time will tell.

PETERS, JEANETTE
 Commuting every day from S. F. doesn't dampen the spirits of this little miss. Fiery red hair and a devilish personality make her stand out from the wonders through these halls of learning.

PLATTS, DOROTHY
 Raven-haired, small, and striking-looking, Dor is well known around school. She is a great lover of Jitterbugging and can surely swing it "Eight to the bar."

POWELL, LOIS NO PICTURE
 Lois hopes that some day she'll be able to put some clippings about herself into her opera scrapbook, but otherwise she could be quite content pounding a typewriter if she could spend her time off playing mermaid.

RANDALL, WALTER
 Walter might almost be considered one of Burlingame's bachelor boys. He is not too quiet, has a decided personality all his own, and is well liked by all his classmates.

RANKIN, ELEANOR
 "Ellie" appears to be serious-minded, but when you get to know her—what fun! She likes to swim and sail and have you ever heard any of her long stories?"

RASICO, MARION
 "Rass" is full of fun, loves to swim and dance. She can really pound the ivories, and will always help with the entertainment. She goes in for gadget necklaces and bracelets.

REYNOLDS, KATHLEEN
 Kathleen's Irish wit and jolly disposition make her one of our favorite colleegs. Stargely enough, however, her idea of heaven is not the Emerald Isle, but just a place to swim.

RICKARD, ERNEST
 Sandy-colored hair, friendly eyes, and a quiet manner are outstanding to the eyes of his classmates. Under it all is a very serious mind, which some day may place him in "Who's Who."

ROGERS, DOROTHY
 "Daff" has the typical quick Irish wit. She can always top a crack and keep you in stitches. She has beautiful dark-brown hair; and, have you noticed her eyes?"

RONES, JEANNE
 "About a year ago blonde Jeanne was voted the "Petty Girl of B.H.S."—and we surely think she deserved it. With a lovely voice and a way with the boys—and girls, we destine Miss Rones for great things in the future."

RUBIN, BOB
 Two of Bob's outstanding talents are his participation in sports and his widely-read journalistic items. He always has a friendly "Hello" for everyone he meets, and he has comical characterizations of them stored in his mind.

SCHUMACHER, CHRIS
 Chris is one of that group of strong, silent men. It is quite the task to get him talking; but once you do, you bring out the truly grand person that he is.

SEKINS, MARGE
 She is an all-around good scout and holds a job as an usherette. Perhaps being able to take it comes from her job, where because of her liveliness she is the object of much teasing.

SCHWERIN, BOB
 Bob has made quite a place for himself in the ABS records. He has always been interested in basketball, and he's the blue-eyed blond who is always talking to some girl or other in the hall.

SELBY, JO ANN
 Here's what we call an accomplished young lady—and then some. She can (1) show Big Student Leaders how to run the council, (2) cause the mighty to bow before the power of the press, (3) sneeze in the most amazing manner.

SELLECK, JIM
 Quiet, unassuming Jim doesn't stand out to those who haven't known him well; but under his silent exterior is a personality outstanding in its pleasantness and friendliness.

SHERIDAN, MARILYN
SHOAFF, WALTER
SIDLOW, BOBETTA
SMITH, KIRK

SMITH, ROSS
SORENSEN, HELGA
STALDER, HENRY
STALLINGS, BARBARA

STAYTON, CORA STODDARD, DON
STORY, NORMA
STREET, NANCY

SUMMERS, DIANE
SURDEZ, TED
SWANSON, RUTH
TARBILL, JACK

SHERIDAN, MARILYN

A black-haired miss with a quick wit and a love for dancing; the arts, theatre, and sports also interest her. College is her aim, and she's sure to be a success.

SHOAFF, WALTER

If you think you hear a fire-truck thundering down the street on the way to a conflagration, don't get on your bicycle too eagerly, because it may be merely Walt's unmuffled Chevie convert, in which case you are safer on the sidewalk.

SIDLOW, BOBETTA

Tall, dark, and terrific on ice skates, Bobetta is our champion ice-cutter. She would be popular even if it weren't for her collection of horseless carriages.

SMITH, KIRK

Kirk is one person who is never bothered by that awkward feeling of not knowing what to say. He is quite capable of keeping up a conversation on almost everything. Also outstanding is his ability on the ice.

SMITH, ROSS

Versatile is the adjective for Ross. This dark Goodman of Burlington game not only swings a mean clarinet and plays a sure-fire game of basketball but has numerous other talents.

SORENSEN, HELGA

Wherever there's a table of bridge, you'll find Helga. Cal is her aim. She's going to him for higher education. We have a hunch that she will become well learned on the subject of homemaking.

STALDER, HENRY

The nimble figure, flashing down the basketball court for another two points, was none other than Heine Stalder. Dark and of medium height, he always has a friendly word, and likes everyone as everyone likes him.

STALLINGS, BARBARA

Frankly speaking our AGS prexy is really quite a pal. She's distinctive for her braids, her swell tan, and her smooth dancing. Barb is our nomination for the American Model of the Year.

STAYTON, CORA

Cody draws those beautiful girls around school, Merlin and Petty had better look to their laurels when she gets into the commercial world.

STODDARD, DON

Don is interested in becoming an aeronautical engineer, but right now his interest lies in sports and Sea Scouts. He always has a word for everyone.

STORY, NORMA

Norma's story is short and sweet 'cause she's just that.

STREET, NANCY

Another mystery woman—tall, dark, and slender—Nancy is a striking example of the American Glamour Girl.

SUMMERS, DIANE

A comely lass who keeps the boys atwitter is Diane. Poor Teddy has to grin and bear it. She has a medal for diving (her own too) and used to have a passion for motorcycles.

SURDEZ, TED

Ted is the tall, light-complexioned boy who is always "di-ane" to go somewhere. He has high hopes of becoming a play-boy; so watch out for him in the future.

SWANSON, RUTH

Skeeter likes bridge, and if you look closely you'll find her "Gold Seal" on everything else she does. She likes dancing and sports—especially badminton.

TARBILL, JACK

Jack is quite a camera enthusiast. As well as taking pictures of others, he takes a good picture himself, with his light-brown hair and smiling eyes.

TAYLOR, DON
 TAYLOR, YVONNE
 THEUER, BOB
 THOMAS, VIRGINIA
 TOMASELLI, ANN
 TOWLE, BARBARA
 VAN VORIS, BILL
 WALDRON, DICK
 WALTER, IRWIN
 WATERS, MARIE
 WATTS, BILL
 WILLIAMS, DEXTER
 WINKLER, ADRIAN
 WHEELER, EDITH
 WOODWARD, MILO
 WRIGHT, FRED
 WURLITZER, HOWARD

TAYLOR, DON

Ambitious is the word for Don. Always has his scholastic record been bright. Especially outstanding is his public speaking ability. With this asset he can overcome any situation.

TAYLOR, YVONNE

"If only I had red hair," sigh most of the women around these parts. Yvonne has—and plenty of it. The combination of the piano and her beautiful soprano voice singled her out for honors at the recent convention at San Jose.

THEUER, BOB

Blond, likable Bob is a representative on the Senior Cabinet. He has eyes that crinkle like crow's feet whenever he laughs, which is most of the time. Always with him is "Mabel"—his car(?)

THOMAS, VIRGINIA

"Ginger" is a 'ale and 'earty little lass whose bubbling enthusiasm and cute sprinkling of freckles would make her outstanding, even if she wasn't dynamite on the tennis court.

TOMASELLI, ANN

Short and dark, Ann is the quiet type. Nevertheless she possesses a shining gold football; so we know she must be part of a two-some, but we think he's probably from San Mateo.

TOWLE, BARBARA

Pretty Barbara has brown eyes, white teeth and a friendly personality. These characteristics make her a quiet, receptive girl, popular among all her friends.

VAN VOPIS, BILL

Bill is a man of many talents. Ever-present is his jovial smile and friendly hello. He is exceptional in his dramatic and scholastic ability. Once the music starts, he's quite a "he p" jitterbug.

WALDRON, DICK

Ever seen "Wurtle" take a murder? Or heard him yodel one of his cowboy tunes? Dick's a keen fellow, one of B'lingum's best trackmen, and he insists on calling dancing "perambulating."

WALTER, IRWIN

Someone remarked that Irwin's sleek Ford convertible sedan is pretty swell, because it's not too fancy to bang around with the boys in it, and at the same time "belongs on the most deluxe occasions." Seems to us that goes for Irwin, too: at home in any company, friendly to big- and little-shots inclusive.

WATERS, MARIE

A slow, easy-going gal, who has a steady outside interest. She's quite content with a cherry coke and bobbin' around in a little green jalop.

WATTS, BILL

"Slut" is a well-known member of the B'lingum Band and wants to be the hot-boy of a big-name band later on. Sorry, girls, Bill keeps steady company with the fellas.

WILLIAMS, DEXTER

Happy-go-lucky and likable, with dark hair and dark eyes is Dex. Seen everywhere in the center of fun and ready for a good laugh, he goes in for radio building, greasing cars, Dorothy, and goes out for Physics.

WINKLER, ADRIAN

Brain of the bunch, Adrian is the capable editor of the "B," which carries all the news of this local factory of learning. He is a member of the National Quill and Scroll Society. We all predict a great future for this swell fellow.

WHEELER, EDITH

The champion of many AGS committees, Edith loves to talk on almost any subject. Public speaking was the bane of her life. Her favorite subject at present is her proposed trip to Panama. May we go too?

WOODWARD, MILO

Attendance slips and summons surround her daily. Efficient and cute, she'll make a nice secretary for any boss' knee. Whether taking figures from the boss, or making her own on the ice, Milo will really be proficient.

WRIGHT, FRED

We might call "Patrick" the fishing fool, but we won't. He goes in for fishing and being a cut-up. His favorite pastime is spending sixth period arguing with Mr. Richardson over Senior Problems.

WURLITZER, HOWARD

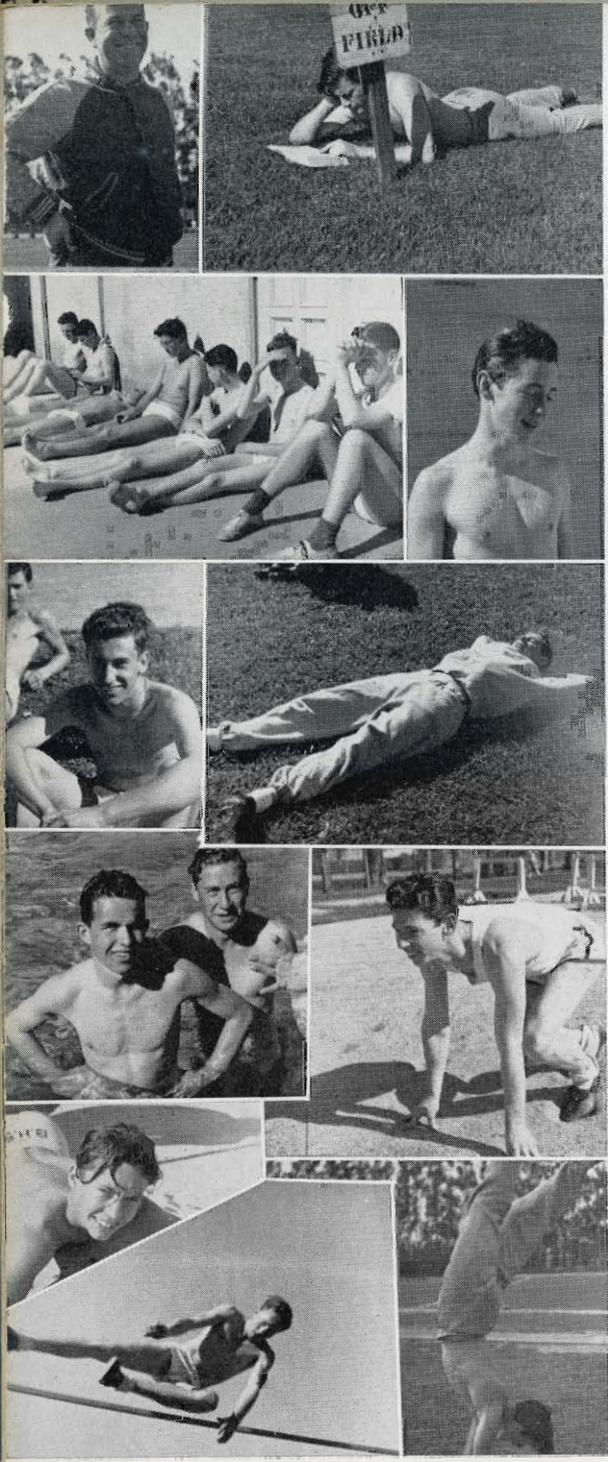

We can't imagine why he was nicknamed "Warm," for he's anything but that. He's full of fun, and he and his station-wagon are always seen heading for the joy.

See you at Stanford

Howard Wurlitzer

H O R

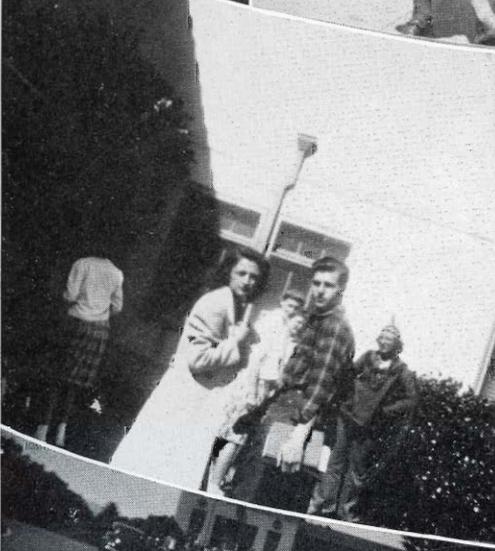

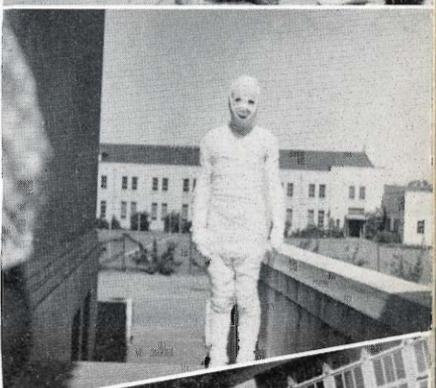

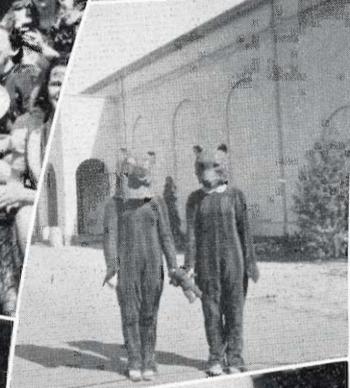

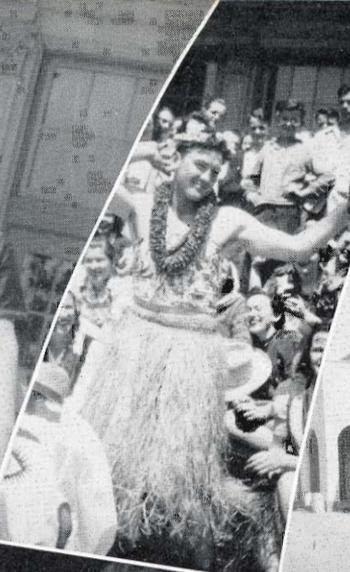

NAME	NAME
Abbott, Bob.....	Abbott, Bob.....
Aldrich, Bill.....	Aldrich, Bill.....
Anderson, Drury.....	Anderson, Drury.....
Armstrong, Bob.....	Armstrong, Bob.....
Arnold, Virginia.....	Arnold, Virginia.....
Bardet, Bill.....	Bardet, Bill.....
Barry, Joan.....	Barry, Joan.....
Beggs, Dorothy.....	Beggs, Dorothy.....
Bettencourt, Thelma.....	Bettencourt, Thelma.....
Bettis, Jack.....	Bettis, Jack.....
Blair, Betty.....	Blair, Betty.....
Blair, Edith.....	Blair, Edith.....
Blanc, Al.....	Blanc, Al.....
Bloomer, Sam.....	Bloomer, Sam.....
Boldeman, Barry.....	Boldeman, Barry.....
Bouret, Pierre.....	Bouret, Pierre.....
Bowman, Virginia.....	Bowman, Virginia.....
Brilliant, Carol.....	Brilliant, Carol.....
Brockhouse, Jack.....	Brockhouse, Jack.....
Bump, Betty.....	Bump, Betty.....
Burnett, Andrew.....	Burnett, Andrew.....
Burns, Jean.....	Burns, Jean.....
Burrow, Richard.....	Burrow, Richard.....
Busey, Bob.....	Busey, Bob.....
Cameron, Don.....	Cameron, Don.....
Carlisle, Forrest.....	Carlisle, Forrest.....
Chamberlain, Betty.....	Chamberlain, Betty.....
Chiu, Donald.....	Chiu, Donald.....
Coates, Gloria.....	Coates, Gloria.....
Coe, Charles.....	Coe, Charles.....
Collins, Patricia.....	Collins, Patricia.....
Conlon, Michael.....	Conlon, Michael.....
Converse, Dick.....	Converse, Dick.....
Cosgriff, Edward.....	Cosgriff, Edward.....
Costa, Bernice.....	Costa, Bernice.....
Cote, Bud.....	Cote, Bud.....
Couvrette, Jane.....	Couvrette, Jane.....
Cross, Charles.....	Cross, Charles.....
Crowe, Lloyd.....	Crowe, Lloyd.....
Cummings, Anne.....	Cummings, Anne.....
Davis, Barbara.....	Davis, Barbara.....
Dickson, Helen.....	Dickson, Helen.....
Dooher, Jane.....	Dooher, Jane.....
Dormeyer, Dave.....	Dormeyer, Dave.....
Doss, Virginia.....	Doss, Virginia.....
Douglas, Lorraine.....	Douglas, Lorraine.....
Doyle, Betty.....	Doyle, Betty.....
Dunn, Glenn.....	Dunn, Glenn.....
Eachus, Franklin.....	Eachus, Franklin.....
Eddingfield, Betty Jane.....	Eddingfield, Betty Jane.....
Eisen, Mel.....	Eisen, Mel.....
Ellis, Bernardine.....	Ellis, Bernardine.....
Ennis, Susanne.....	Ennis, Susanne.....
Fena, Peter.....	Fena, Peter.....
Fishel, Barbara.....	Fishel, Barbara.....
Fuller, Earl.....	Fuller, Earl.....
Gallagher, Eugene.....	Gallagher, Eugene.....
Gaylord, Don.....	Gaylord, Don.....
George, Don.....	George, Don.....
Gibson, Bob.....	Gibson, Bob.....
Haight, Bruce.....	Haight, Bruce.....
Hanchett, Gloria.....	Hanchett, Gloria.....
Hanko, Bob.....	Hanko, Bob.....
Hardman, Doris.....	Hardman, Doris.....
Harrison, Newton.....	Harrison, Newton.....
Harvey, Helene.....	Harvey, Helene.....
Heermann, Betty.....	Heermann, Betty.....
Heinz, Ralph.....	Heinz, Ralph.....
Hobbs, Joseph.....	Hobbs, Joseph.....
Hubbenette, Lorraine.....	Hubbenette, Lorraine.....
Jenkins, Bob.....	Jenkins, Bob.....
Johnson, Leland.....	Johnson, Leland.....
Jones, Audrey.....	Jones, Audrey.....
Jorgenson, Florence.....	Jorgenson, Florence.....
Kaehlor, Ronald.....	Kaehlor, Ronald.....
Kell, Jean.....	Kell, Jean.....
Kemp, Barbara.....	Kemp, Barbara.....
Klahn, June.....	Klahn, June.....
Kranz, Bob.....	Kranz, Bob.....
Lacomble, Corrinne.....	Lacomble, Corrinne.....
Landis, John.....	Landis, John.....

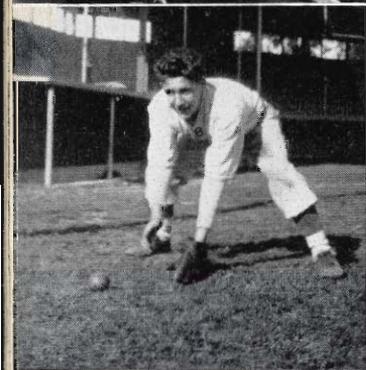

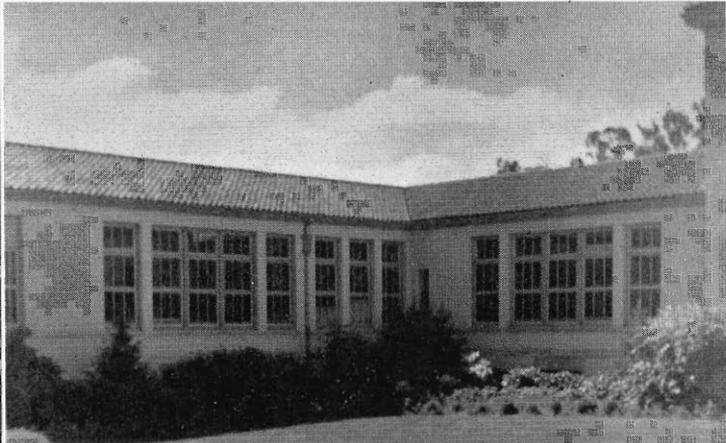

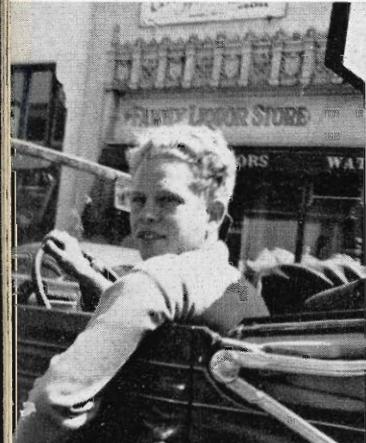

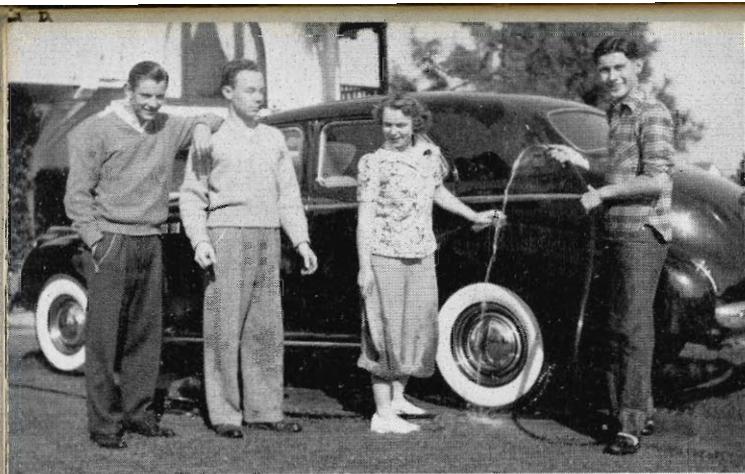

' ' H O R

- NAME
- Lang, Doris
 - Larson, William
 - Law, Ruth
 - Leach, Richard
 - LeBrun, Jack
 - Lewis, Jane
 - Littman, Bob
 - Lyon, Fred
 - MacWilliams, Mary Pat
 - Malquist, Grant
 - Manley, Derrill
 - Martin, Ludolph
 - Maskell, Theodate
 - Matschullat, Ray
 - Mayer, Ralston
 - McCarthy, Bob
 - McDonald, Anna Lea
 - McGuire, Maxine
 - McInerney, Jim
 - McLean, George
 - McQuay, Gwen
 - Merrick, Jean
 - Miller, Vera
 - Mogensen, Beverly
 - Moose, Evelyn
 - Morris, Dick
 - Morrison, Barbara
 - Mulcahey, Jean
 - Muzio, Jack
 - Nagle, Virginia
 - O'Brien, Nadine
 - Ohran, Donald
 - Pantaleoni, Guido
 - Parker, Jim
 - Peters, Jeanette
 - Platts, Dorothy
 - Powell, Lois
 - Randall, Walter
 - Rankin, Eleanor
 - Rasico, Marion
 - Reynolds, Kathleen
 - Rickard, Ernest
 - Rogers, Dorothy
 - Rones, Jeanne
 - Rubin, Bob
 - Schoaff, Walter
 - Schwerin, Bob
 - Sekins, Marge
 - Selby, Jo Ann
 - Selleck, Jim
 - Sheridan, Marilyn
 - Sjdlow, Bobetta
 - Smith, Kirk
 - Smith, Ross
 - Sorensen, Helga
 - Stalder, Henry
 - Stallings, Barbara
 - Stayton, Cora
 - Story, Norma
 - Street, Nancy
 - Summers, Dianne
 - Surdez, Ted
 - Swanson, Ruth
 - Tarbill, Jack
 - Taylor, Yvonne
 - Theuer, Bob
 - Thomas, Virginia
 - Thomaselli, Ann
 - Towle, Barbara
 - Van Voris, Bill
 - Waldron, Dick
 - Walter, Irwin
 - Waters, Marie
 - Watts, Bill
 - Wheeler, Edith
 - Williams, Dexter
 - Winkler, Adrian
 - Woodward, Milo
 - Wright, Fred
 - Wurlitzer, Howard

Dear Bill,

Its been a h--- of alot of fun knowing you. I ran the "Lumberman's" through the Home Board you sure have made things lively. May I wish success, happiness, and good luck to ~~you~~ great councilman, a good athlete, and a small guy

Best

P.S. I'll be seeing you around.

Bill,
I only wish that I had known you longer. Although our friendship has been rather short, during this time
I've learnt what a swell kid you are, and I'm not kidding you, Bill.
I hope that your success at Stanford will be as great as that of yours at Burlingame, our beloved Mary Mamy.
Bob Mc Carthy

Dick Wagner M¹ '36
S.H. - '41

Don See M¹
S.H.

Gwonne Casner
S.H.

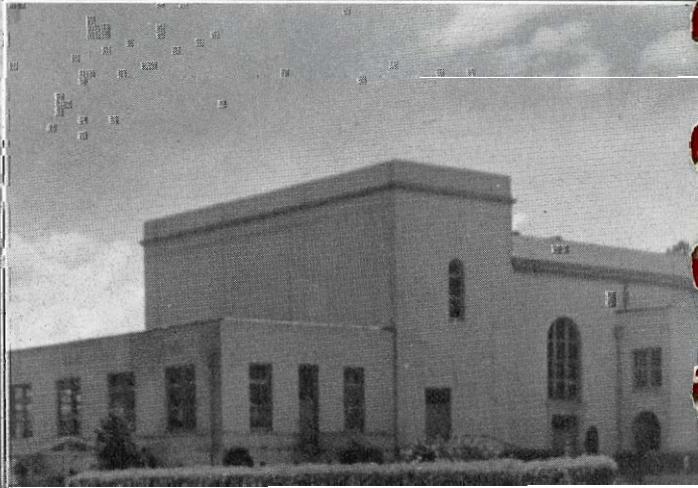

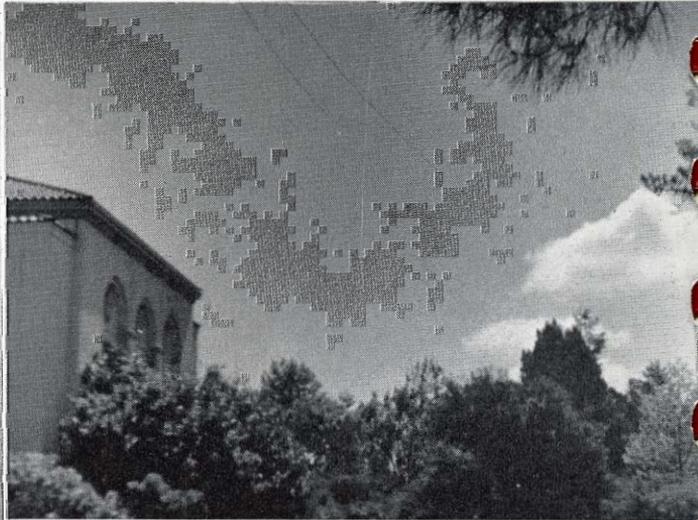

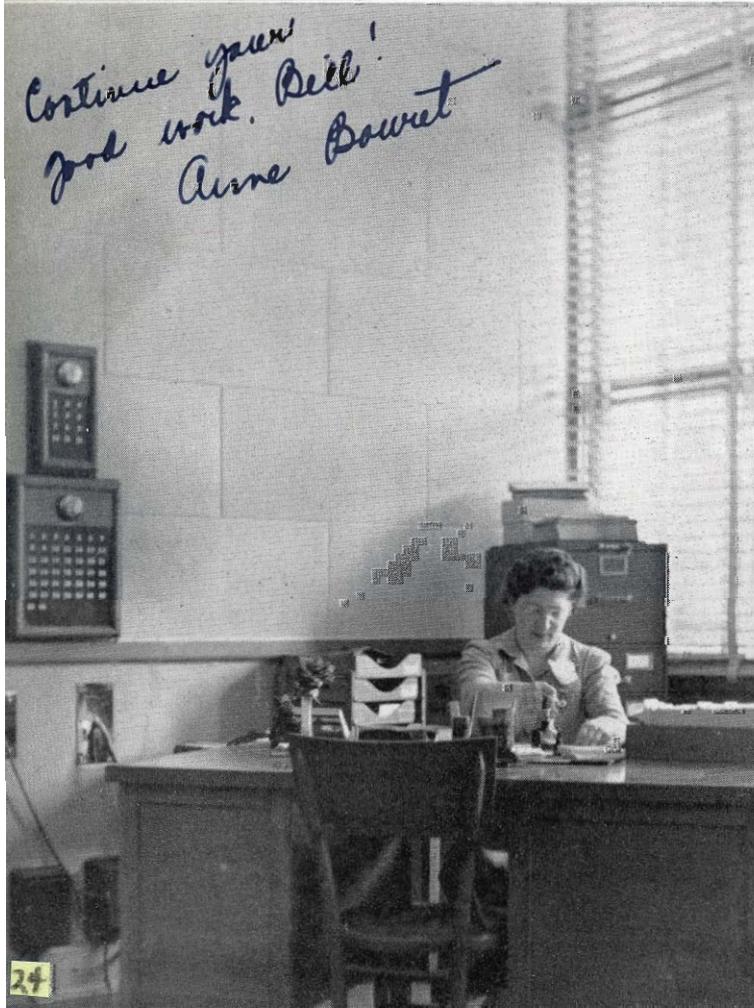

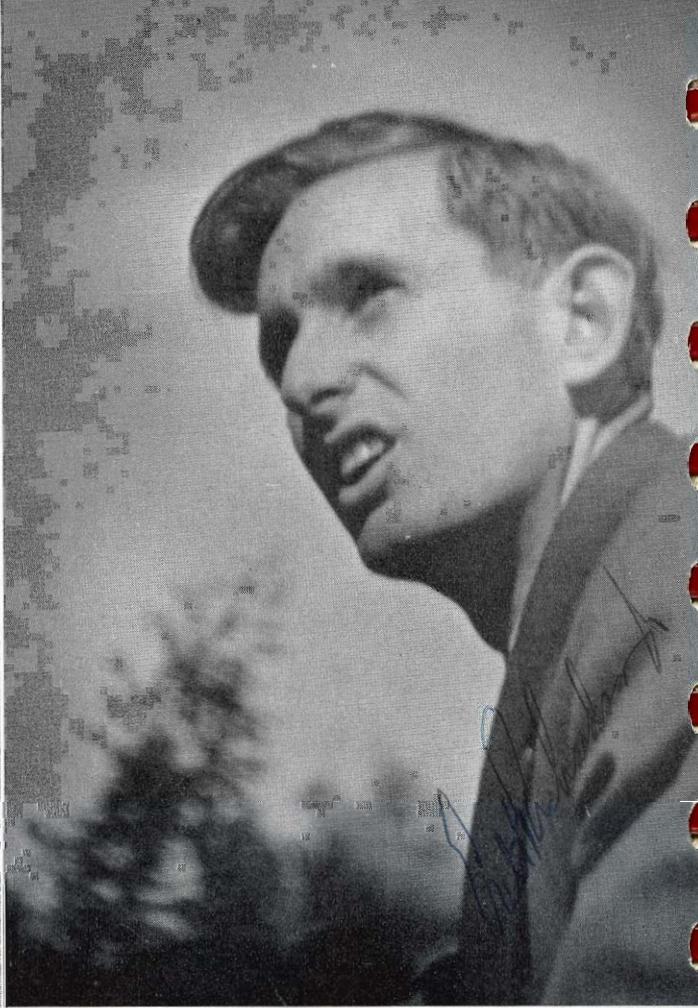

Bill Elliott
S.H.

Darry M. Tellow
S.H. - '41

Good Luck
Mary Potts
Hull, England
?

Bill,
You have been a great Councilman and your a great Bella. I hope you have a great time at Stanford but don't beat worry
"Big Grams"

Mary Pat

*The best always to you,
Bill — Jo Ann Selby*

S H E I S

JO ANN SELBY

At first glance Jo Ann appears to be "a cute little trick," and few suspect that she has anything on her mind but last night's date. In the past four years, however, she has bounced blithely from one honor to another.

We think it all started when she was appointed as Burlingame's most outstanding girl to attend Girls' State at Sacramento. Since then she has been secretary of the Council, co-editor of the "B," and a gold seal student. Now as the climax of her career she has been elected Burlingame's most popular girl. What more could you ask?

H E I S

SAM BLOOMER

Ever since he was president of the student body at Roosevelt Grammar School Sammy has been a stand-out. At the moment he is senior vice-prexy and an especially energetic chief yell-leader. In addition, he is what girls mean by cute, being blessed with curly hair, blue eyes, and the happiest disposition in B'lingum. He possesses the smile that makes us all happy.

Oh! Jo Ann Best of luck to the best of Burlingame's future Jo Ann

Bill, you did a lot for Blgum -
Best of luck to you -
W.J. Van Dine

Delvin Jones
(Mr. Tena - gardener)

Ed Lighter
Ethel Mitchell

Dear Bill,
we have been together in grammar school and high school and now we will become enemies on the athletic field but I hope we will always be friends.
Virginia Bowman

Dear Bill,
To the guy who put over the Bond Issue and one of the best members of the council and a swell guy; best wishes and continued success.
Dick Burrow

Bill - May you be as successful always as you have been for the past four years.

Bob Rubin
H. A. Smith

Love & luck to a fellow champion!
Percy Boyer

Dear Bill -
I hope you will be successful in your new venture.
I will be cheering you on.
Love,
Percy Boyer

Alan Gold lots and lots of very things good P.S. Keep your nose clean & have fun!

BURLINGAME
HIGH SCHOOL
JUN 19 10 59 AM '41
ATTD OFFICE

FULL HOUSE

Frank Eachus

FRANK EACHUS
JEANNE RONES

*The best of luck and everything to you - You've see one that certainly deserves it - It's been wonderful - a million thanks for all the fun we've had - This isn't good-bye is it?
Love Jeanne*

EMERSON
HIGH SCHOOL
1015 25th St
ST. PAUL, MINN.

Barbara Kemp

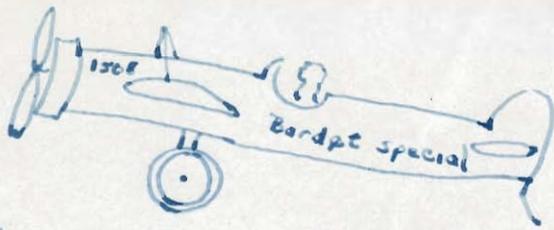

Bob Theuer

BARBARA KEMP
BOB THEUER
BARBARA STALLINGS

*Dear Bill -
W.A. son's to too far from Blingum, so I have hope I seeing one of the artist. I guess
I know. I guess well that fellow a McKinley 37
Blingum 41 Paul*

A PAIR OF JACKS

In case I ever fly, please don't design a plane that won't hold my pot-belly!

Best of Luck & all that Bill!

Alan Touchup
 Ernest Young

Rich
 To a damn handsome guy whose got plenty of wood ph

Nadine O'Brien

Good Luck to you "good looking Boy"

Dear Bill
 what a punie you are. I'll be proud to know you Best of luck
 Jeanette

ES Wiedemann

Good luck to "ambitious Willie"
 Don Schmidt.

Best of luck and best wishes, Bill
 Evelyn Jory

Good Luck
 G.C. Wiedert

Dear Bill,
 Lots of luck
 Lots of success
 So you
 One of George's friends Lloyd

Dear Bill
 Lot of luck equal game
 So Long Handsome, Jack Mulcahey
 Gallagher

To a wonderful boy, with personality + etc. Lots of luck at Stanford, Bill - Best always, America

Laura Jeppesen

We'll get Cal in the future
Bill Gearhart

1 letter in handwriting

All the luck in the world!!!
Hal Lucas

How and kisses
Y. Gillin
Pammy

Dear Bill,
I want to wish one of the best guys in the class all the luck in the world - but with what the got I guess you'll have all luck, pretty Chamberlain

To Bill from Bill (U.C.)

Bill will ever be a great first Love,
V. Mackley

V. Mackley

Bill
new friends now but we'll be making balls.
"Chuck" Cross

Don't forget to send the picture you sent me of the "Erie" factory work.
At Stanford

Dear Bill,
It was a pleasure
to see you thru '40.
(not all in high) I don't mind over a court bid - and that's you, Bill.
Be good and the best of everything to you always.
John R. Dine
Marilyn '37
Bill '41

Bill, it has been a distinct pleasure having you as a student. I'll be watching our star rise. "Dad" Tuelley

Not so good on ice.
April 10

Convict haircuts just in time for Senior pictures

HOME GUARD

Dress-up day - April 18

SENIOR BALL
JUNE

Senior Assembly

EASTER VACATION
- SLEEP -

J.C.
Day

COMMENCEMENT

SENIOR BARRY B-GUE
MAY 9

RI...
RHUMBA
APRIL 28

E1008E

F. F. Reynolds
"Cookie"

Leo (janitor)

MS
the best of luck
Bill Miller
Ed Conroy

Diately to his school
Dallas A. Tuller
John S. Ball (janitor)

Barbara Brambleton
M. Robinson

Stanford Boy
Oh Boy!
Amie!

"Star Report" McCall
John Moore

Dear Bill - Remember those church lunches?
Some fun!
Jeanne Anderson

Dear Bill -
In a spot as public I can scarcely say what I want to say - but anyway - love don't let's peach track - you other - you know - love - Jo

Bill, to a yellow
"Chris Brown" east - loads of love as Stanford and may you always have fun!
Barb Kump

JACK WENDORN

all the success possible
Russ Kickett

Good luck, Bill Anne Barrett
Margaret Ford
Barbara Winslip

To a damn good guy -
Barb Kump

Quadrine M. Hall

Dear Willie
We enjoyed studying your dual personality (~~can~~ watch your French)

No doubt with your love of the Bourgeois and your French - you'll do all right -

B. Doyle (humor) Humorous 37 Haskell

Bill
Richard

High School
Joe Brown

Dear Bill,
you used to make me awfully mad in English
but they good luck.
You Homer

Bill
Richard

Best of luck
Office

C.H. Thomas Burlingame
Police Dept

Best wishes
Ed. Hevey

Tom Horton

Burlingame's loss is Stanford's gain.
Pierre

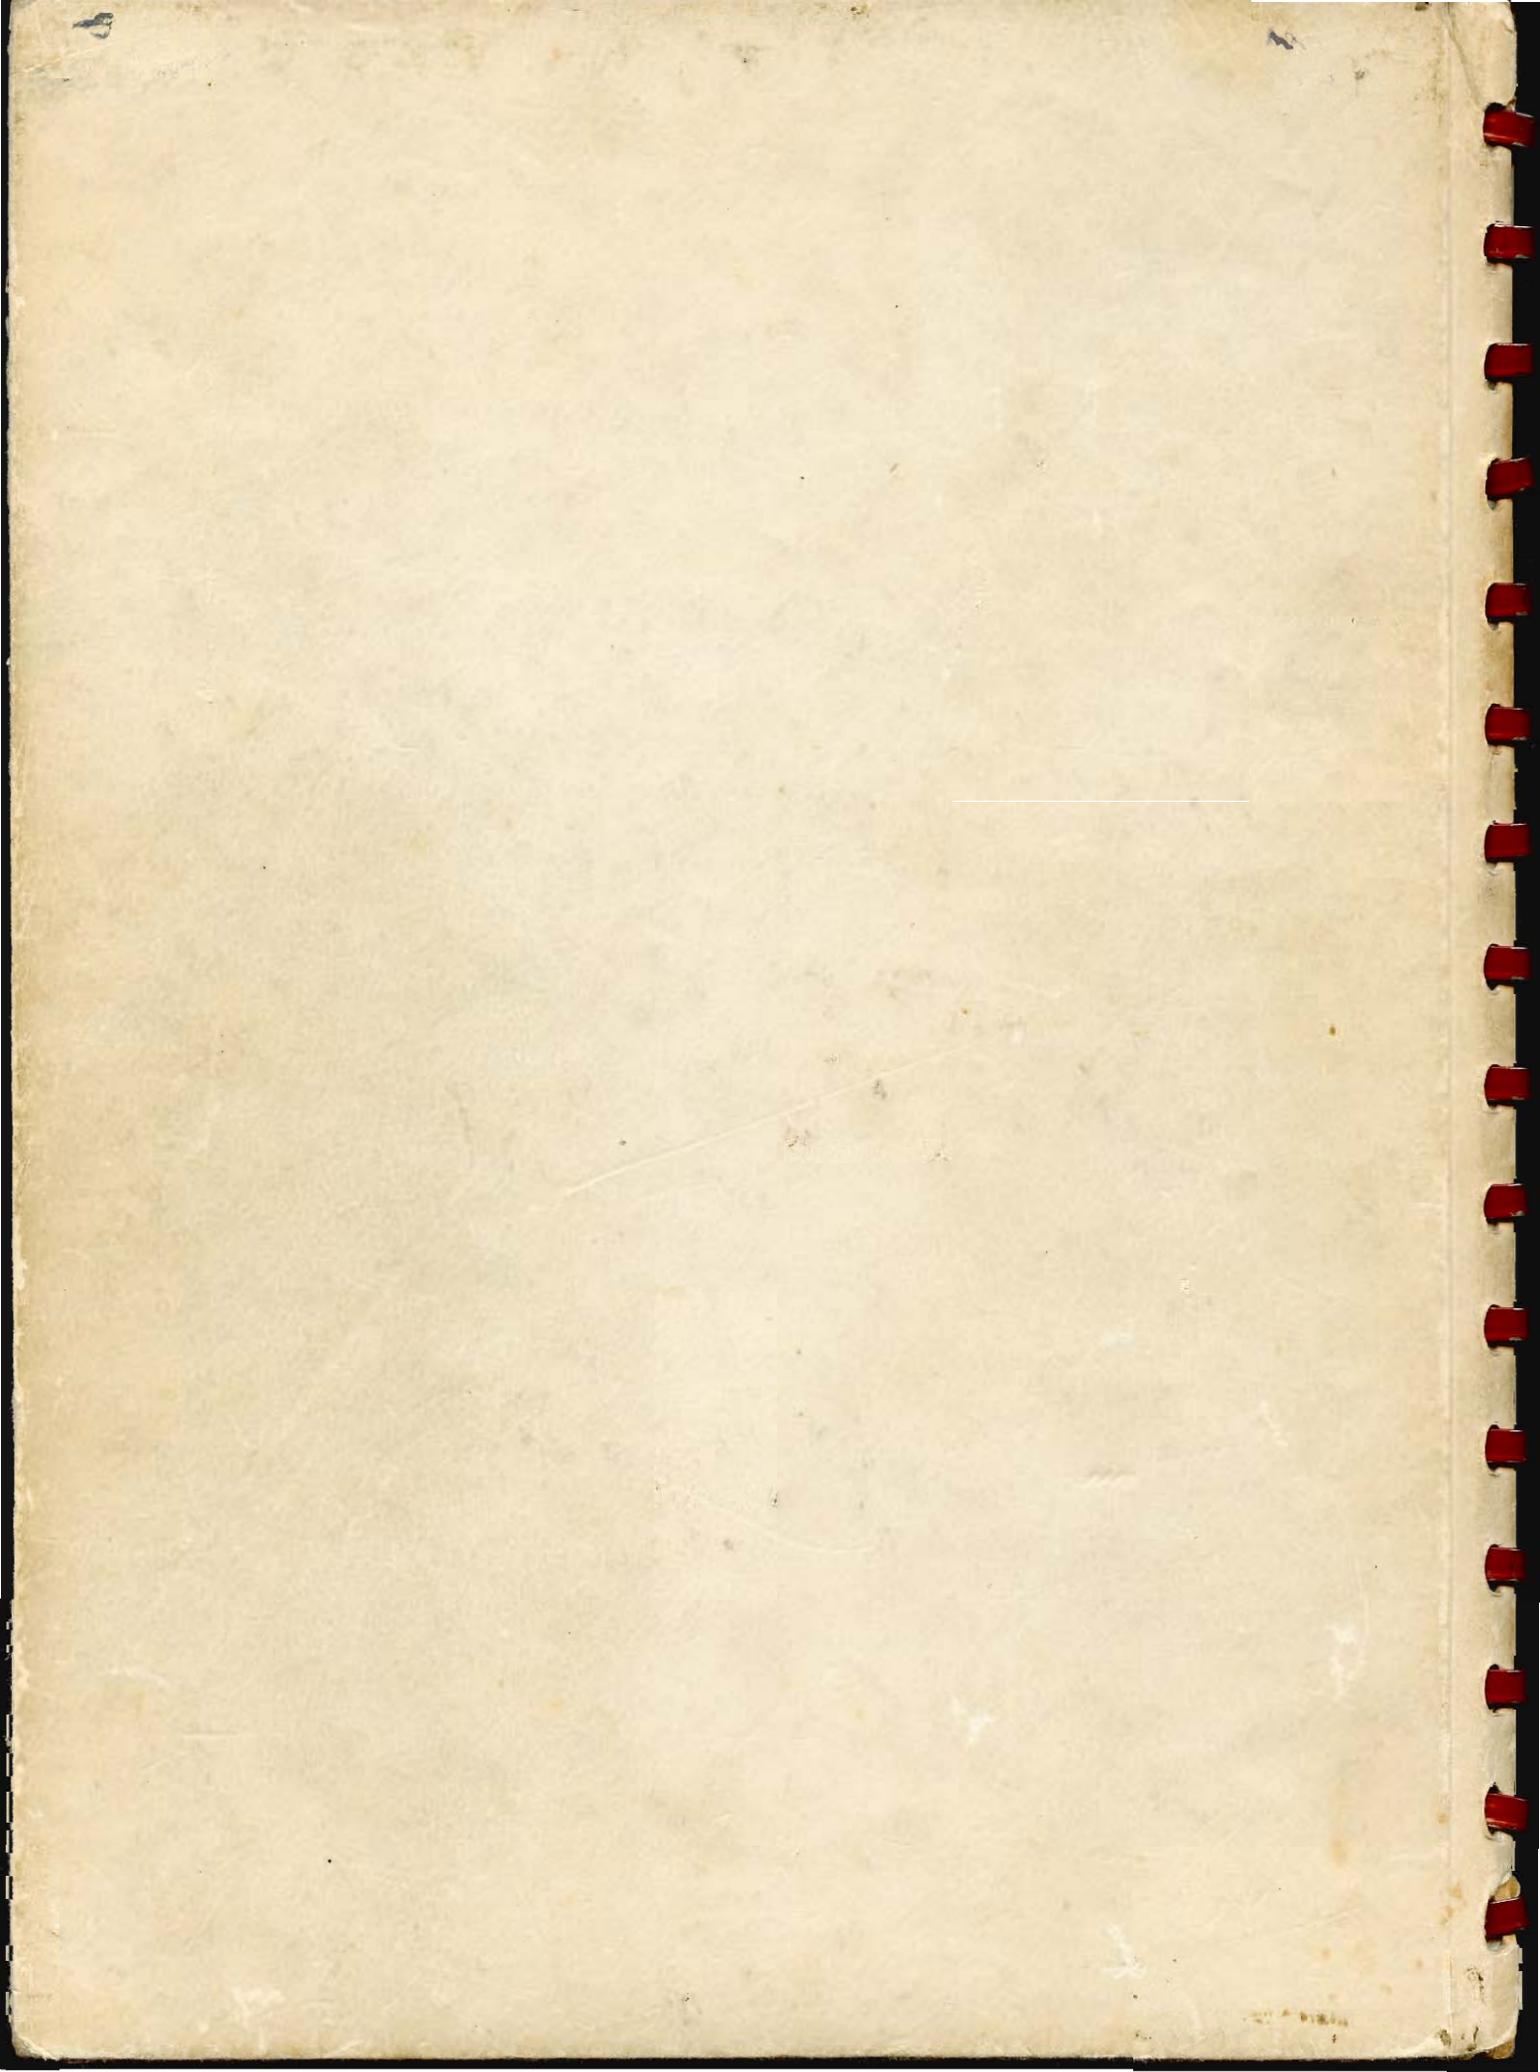

Best of luck
Burlingame
Burlingame

James
Robert

James
Robert

A future Congressman from California -
Karl Kelly

Burlingame B

NOT THE BIGGEST BUT THE BEST

VOLUME 12—NO. 17

BURLINGAME HIGH SCHOOL, BURLINGAME, CALIFORNIA

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 18, 1941

Senior Class Leaves Many Offices Open For Replacement

Next Friday evening the class of '41 will bid a fond farewell to their alma mater, leaving behind vacancies that will be hard to replace.

Heading the list in prominence are student body president, Dick Burows; student manager, Derrill Manley; and members of the council, Jo Ann Selby, Bill Bardet, and Bob Armstrong. Dick is known not only in his role as a student leader, but on the football field and as last year's president of boys' Block B. Derrill came to Burlingame two years ago bringing with him an engaging drawl and a personality which helped to make him one of the most popular seniors. Jo Ann Selby is in a class by herself; secretary of the student body, associate editor and copy-reader on the B staff, winner of a scholarship to California University, gold seal student, and last year's representative to Girls State. Bob Armstrong is vice president of the student body and Bill Bardet, senior member of council, directed the students in their recent drive for the Bond Issue.

The A.G.S. and A.B.S. are losing its capable leaders, Barbara Stallings and George McLean. The A.B.S. also loses its art chairman, Jim McNerny, and assemblies chairman, Bob Jenkins. The A. G. S. will be minus its vice president, Jeanne Rones; secretary, Gloria Coates; and treasurer, Helga Sorenson.

The majority of the commissioners will be graduated. Those leaving are Betty Chamberlin, school affairs; Jane Dooher, drama; Jack Bettis, awards; Bud Carlisle, boys' athletics; Carol Brilliant, recording; Betty Doyle, publicity; Drury Anderson, girls' athletics; Evelyn Moose, music; and Ross Smith, rally.

The drama department will lose three of its most active members: Jane Dooher, Helen Dickson, and Bill Van Voris. Jane, who has been in several school plays, turned in her senior year to directing drama activities. Helen has ably filled the job of assistant commissioner; and Bill has been in just about every play produced at Bur-

(Continued on page 3)

163 Seniors Say Goodbye to Burlingame Friday Evening at Commencement Exercises

Tom Reynolds

Tom Reynolds, erstwhile dean of boys, who will replace Mr. Van Voris as principal of Burlingame, thus continuing his efficient service to the school in a position where he will be able to endear himself to even more students.

Questionnaire Reveals Senior 'Low Down'

Returns of the senior questionnaire, announced Saturday at the senior ball, are as follows: Charlie Cross and Jo Ann Selby, best mixers; Charlie Cross and Gloria Coates, the sweetest dispositioned; Jeanne Rones, Dick Burow, and Bill Bardet, most dated high seniors; Lloyd Crowe and Derrill Manley, nicest mannered; Dick Burow and Corinne Lacombe, most sophisticated seniors; Jean Merrick and Dick Leach, most notorious flirts; Virginia Nagle, most Vogue-ish girl; Fred Lyon, most Esquire-ish boy; Bob Busey and Virginia Nagle, most extravagant; Charlie Cross and Betty Chamberlin, nicest smiles; Derrill Manley and Barbara Stallings, most democratic; Pierre Bouret and Jo Ann Selby, best speakers; Sam Bloomer and Jeanne Rones, most popular; Jo Ann Selby and Charlie Cross, best personalities.

Bob Busey and Jean Merrick, best bluffers; George McLean and Maxine McGuire, to marry first; Bill Van Voris, first to make "Who's Who"; Walter Randall, biggest woman-hater; Marion Rasico, biggest man-hater; Bud Carlisle and Barbara Kemp, most beautiful eyes; Frank Eachus and Jeanne Rones, best looking; Bud Cote and Drury Anderson, most athletic; Bill Van Voris, Bob McCarthy, Dorothy Rogers, and Marion Rasico, most statterbrained; Fred Lyon and Betty Doyle, most talkative.

W. T. Van Voris

William T. Van Voris, who, after eight years of organizing and improving Burlingame high school, is leaving to take over the principalship of San Mateo high school.

Grads Plan to Enter 21 Different Colleges

Following graduation, the high seniors of the class of June '41 will be scattered among 21 colleges and universities over the nation, San Mateo junior college claiming the majority.

Of the 163 high seniors, the 51 who will enter the junior college are Dorothy Beggs, Betty Chamberlin, Gloria Coates, Jane Couvrette, Lorraine Douglas, Susanne Ennis, Barbara Fishel, Gloria Hanchett, Lorraine Hubbenette, Florence Jorgenson, Ruth Law, Theodate Maskell, Jean Merrick, Dorothy Platts, Marge Sekins, Nancy Street, Virginia Thomas, Ann Tomaselli, Gwen McQuay, Jack Bettis, Bob Abbott, Jack Brockhouse, Charles Coe, Dave Dornmeyer, Glen Dunn, Peter Fena, Bob Gibson, Bruce Haight, Ralph Heinz, Joe Hobbs, Leland Johnston, Ronald Kaehler, John Landis, Willie Larsen, Ludolph Martin, Ray Matschullat, Jim McNerny, Dick Morris, Donald Ohran, Jim Parker, Ernest Rickard, Chris Schumacher, Jim Selleck, Walter Shoaff, Kirk Smith, Don Taylor,

A bugle call to the colors will open the ceremonies of Burlingame high school's 1941 graduation program next Friday evening, June 20, in the school auditorium, at which time 163 high seniors will receive their diplomas.

The seniors will march down the aisles and on to the stage to the traditional "Doges Processional March," played by the high school theatre orchestra under the direction of Elmer Young.

After a salute to the flag, led by Dick Burow, and the invocation by the Rev. James Baldwin of Burlingame Baptist church, student speakers will discuss various phrases of the graduation theme, "Lest We Forget," taken from Rudyard Kipling's poem "Recessional."

Irwin Walter, president of the graduating class will speak on the subject "What America Means"; Barbara Davis, "Our Material Heritage"; Jo Ann Selby, "Our Spiritual Heritage"; Adrian Winkler, "Our Intellectual Heritage"; and Pierre Bouret, "Our Inner Defense." Betty Bump will sing Samuel Ward's "America the Beautiful," accompanied by the high school string orchestra; and the sixth period choral class will render "Recessional" by de Koven.

Following the speakers, co-president of the senior class, Charles Cross will introduce the graduates, and retiring Superintendent Homer Martin and retiring Principal W. T. Van Voris will officiate at the presentation of diplomas. A farewell speech entitled "L'envoi" will be given by Bill Van Voris.

In conclusion, the graduating student manager, Derrill Manley, will give a dedication from the class of '41, following which the school orchestra will play Wagner's overture to "Der Meistersingers."

Dexter Williams, Fred Wright, Frank Eachus, Pierre Bouret, and Don George.

To the University of California will go Drury Anderson, Carol Brilliant, Doris Harlan, Mary Pat MacWilliams, Barbara Stallings, Jo Ann Selby, Jane Dooher, (Continued on page 3)

Burlingame High School

Owned and published weekly by the students of the Burlingame High School, Burlingame Calif. Printed by the San Bruno Herald. Entered as second class matter, September, 1927, at the Postoffice at Burlingame, Calif., under an act of Congress of March 3, 1897.

STAFF

Editor Adrian Winkler
 Associate Editor Jo Ann Selby
 Publicity Editor Betty Doyle
 Sports Editors Bud Carlisle, Bob Rubin
 Faculty Adviser Mrs. Ethel Mitchell

REPORTERS

Drury Anderson Derrill Manley
 Bob Ashe Jack McCorkle
 Pat Collins Rohry MacNeill
 Jane Dooher Betty Jean Ulrich
 Virginia Nagle Jack Gallagher Adele Salmirs.

with grateful hearts

163 senior students of Burlingame high school are attending classes here this week for the last time. They look down these halls, greet their teachers with mixed feelings.

Sadly they realize that they won't be here in the future to hear "Mac's" jokes and "Robbie's" bright chatter, to explore the human anatomy with Mr. Watson and throw switches in the physics lab, to listen raptly to Mr. Dean's poetry reading and Mr. Wedertz's dry, drawling humor.

Amused, they contemplate their initials carved in some desk four years ago; or peruse revealing old files of B's.

Proudly they tell themselves that they are no longer to be high school kids; they are men and women, collegians perhaps.

But predominant over every other sentiment is a deep sense of gratitude. They have grown, these 163, in four years: Not only physically, but mentally and perhaps morally. For this they are grateful; grateful for having an opportunity to learn; grateful for the assistance of teachers who rightly have tried to open doors to knowledge rather than actually to teach; grateful for living in a country where education is freely accessible to everyone.

the old order changeth

For eight years Burlingame High has grown and prospered under the capable guidance of W. T. Van Voris, good old "Van" as he is referred to among the students, who has worked faithfully during his term of office to organize this school into the smoothly-running machine it is today.

One of the most important features of his administration, and the one most taken for granted, has been the introduction into Burlingame of student government, which has been nurtured to a high degree of excellence. He has often been heard to remark that our legislative activities are of great interest to him, because he was always eager that a sense of responsibility be instilled into the student mind.

"Van" has done a great piece of work for us, and in appreciation for his well-directed efforts, we wish him happiness and good fortune as the principal of San Mateo High.

To his successor, Tom Reynolds, erstwhile dean of boys, we extend our congratulations. From past experience with "Tom", we know that he will continue to advise us and befriend us in the same spirit of comradeship which he has shown us in the past.

IN A RUT WITH THE OLD MAID

THAT LAST ISSUE

Room 19 has been literally snowed under with complaints about our last edition. . . . And rightly so. . . . The B, originally scheduled to be distributed on or about May 29, did not appear until five days later; not our fault, folks.

A VOTE OF THANKS

is what the student body owes Bill Bardet and his bond issue committee. . . . No one will ever appreciate the amount of effort Bill and his cohorts expended on that much-publicized piece of legislation. . . . And another vote of thanx to Betty Chamberlin for the swell barn dance she engineered election night. . . . Super floor show, too, especially Bob Hanko's mystifying magic, for which we have been plugging these many issues.

NOW THAT IT'S ALL OVER

but the speeches, and this is our final edition, we can settle back in our chair and entertain some sirupy memories about the past four years. . . . We can remember way back when Dick Burow, Low 9, talked about nothing but his gal in Petaluma. . . . And when la Ronces went to Senior Balls when she was a freshman. . . . And when Gloria Coates recited for our frosh assembly. . . . When the class of June '41 celebrated a Little Big Victory for the first time at the "Varsity Huddle" dance in 1937. . . . And when Pierre Bouret had a leading part, along with Ferdinand, in the floor show of the Carnival in 1938. . . . When Bob Armstrong used to be on the scholarship society continually. . . . Those were the days. . . . Do you remember Barb Morrison when she was famed for never wearing the same outfit twice? . . . And when we first started hotel dancing? . . . That heat wave two years ago when Searsville enjoyed unprecedented crowds? . . . When we all thought the Frank Eachus-Marilyn Brown Romance would last Forever? . . . Can you recall way back to the time before Maxine McQuire and "Big George" McLean started going steady? . . . And when we all considered the Devonshire, with its howling wind and dripping oaks, the Place to Go? . . . When Bill Torello's orchestra was so popular? . . . When thoughts of college and work were farthest from our minds? . . . And when we planned our high-school programs in Orientation? . . . And how important we felt when we were upperclassmen finally? . . . How we all made cracks each fall on the first day of the new term when good old "Van" made the same old speech to the new frosh? . . . And how we always vowed that our class would have a good yearbook? . . . How we crammed and prayed during Finals? . . . And do you remember how soon we discovered what swell people Mr. Wedertz and Mr. Haseltine are? . . . And Burlingame night in the Mural Room with Freddie Martin, who played "Goodnight, Sweetheart" for the last dance. . . . And the convivial Christmas season, with teas and open houses and riotous New Year's Eve brawls. . . . This nostalgia will go on forever, but not in print, for more reminiscent tears from the inkwell will blur the page. . . .

FROM THE CAMPANILE

In the past year I've written some 10,000 words 'Bout events around school I've seen and I've heard.

I've tried to please all; I know I've pleased some— Many times it was hard, but all the time fun. You've had to answer countless "When, Why, and What's" —

Thanks for your patience; here's the last of the "Ruts."

Whim & Whimsy By WINK

THOSE SENIOR CHARACTERS

And now, for the third successive semester, W. & W. by W. brings its readers the TEN TOP HIGH SENIOR CHARACTERS. This is the only official list, and we personally guarantee our choices to be Pleasantly Peculiar People.

1. BOB "RABBIT" ABBOTT, so called perhaps for the humble manner in which his big murderous "Green Death" Buick scampers down the Avenue, invariably honored with a police escort— on its tail.

2. SELBY, who, it is rumored, also has a first name, Jo Ann. She qualifies for any number of good reasons, one being her amazing sneeze-lets, which are the best illustration we know of Frustrated Desire.

3. ROBIN RUBIN, who has probably never been called that but it seems to sound right. He is without exception the strangest bedfellow we ever slept with (at the Cal press convention). He has long, vicious toenails and fingernails with which he ripped the sheets to shreds, not to mention us.

4. BOB "ST. VITUS JIVE" McCARTHY, who as an inspired jitterbug achieves a remarkable imitation of an agile spider with a hot-foot.

5. DERRILL "DERK THE JERK" MANLEY, who came from Arizona to convert the heathen savages of Burlingame. First he announced that he didn't believe a girl should be kissed until engaged, and then he proceeded to prove, to the acute disappointment of local femmes, that he meant it.

6. FRED LYON, whom we once pulled single-handed through an entire course in Latin 4, in return for a series of lectures on photography that left us reeling and awe-struck.

7. BOB BUSEY, who personifies the Wolf with such realism that prudent mothers set steel traps for him on the doorstep.

8. BILL "HOT LIPS" WATTS, who is a trumpeter par excellence, being second only to Charlie Budd of Stanford in the art of triple-tonguing. And if you want the whole story, which the "Rut" stubbornly refuses to hear, Bob Clark was only a somewhat unidentified bystander at the time.

9. BETTY DOYLE, who is just a panic and that's all there is to it.

10. BILL VAN VORIS, the three-ring circus and sideshow, to whom we simply can't do justice in one short paragraph.

AGShorts

By DRURY ANDERSON

The senior girls' farewell assembly held last Wednesday went off with its customary smoothness. Congrats to Barb Kemp. No noticeable tears were shed, but the final downpour will probably come with graduation. The mothers looked very proud and beautiful, and the incoming freshmen wore the usual bewildered look. The speakers were in that well-known knee-knocking, tongue-tied condition. The ABS sharpshooters were kept busy all day surveying the beautiful high senior girls who strutted the halls in their Sunday finery. Kemp, MacDonald, and Morrison resembled a sister act. Miss Northrup was kept very busy backstage putting the soft pedal on Bob Armstrong's violin playing; and it was the last straw when he broke into the merry strains of "Bohemian Girl."

B

Grads' Plans

(Continued from page 1)

Grant Malquist, Bob Hanko, Bob Rubin, Ross Smith, and Adrian Winkler.

Only six seniors will enter Stanford: Betty Blair, Edith Blair, Bobetta Sidlow, Bill Aldrich, Bill Bardet, and Irwin Walter. Eight will journey to Oregon in the fall: Anna Lea McDonald, Beverley Mogenson, Barbara Morrison, Barry Boldemann, Don Cameron, Tod Cosgriff, Bud Cote, and Henry Stalder; and Lloyd Crowe will register at Oregon State.

San Jose State Teachers' College will claim Betty Bump, Betty Jane Eddingfield, Jeanne Rones, Edith Wheeler, and Yvonne Taylor. Betty Doyle will attend Dominican college, San Rafael. Helene Harvey, June Klahn, Marie Waters, Corinne Lacomble, Vera Miller, Jean Mondek, and Norma Story will respectively attend the University of Southern California, San Francisco State, San Francisco Women's college, Mills college, San Diego State, and Sacramento junior college. Barbara Kemp will journey to Missouri to Stephens college for women. Newton Harrison will attend business college; Walter Randall, Bob Jenkins, and Bud Carlisle, Menlo junior college; Dick Burow, Northwestern university. Charles Cross and Bob McCarthy will enter Santa Clara; Earl Fuller, the University of New Mexico; Fred Lyon, the art center school; Derrill Manley, Arizona State; Jack Le Brun, San Jose State; and George McLean, St. Mary's college.

SENIORS' LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the high seniors of the class of June '41, in order to bestow upon the poor souls who are left in this delectable institution our many virtues and talents do hereby make this our last will and testament.

I, BARBARA DAVIS, do hereby will my A + 's to BOB LINDSTROM.

I, MARGE SEKINS, do hereby will my gym makeups to the incoming freshmen.

I, BOB MCCARTHY, do hereby will my jitterbuggin' to JANET COMFORT with which to disturb dreamy dancers at future school dances.

I, BEVERLY MOGENSEN, do hereby will my demureness to ANN PIERSOL.

I, JEANNE MULCAHEY, do hereby will my little sister to the ABS.

I, BOB RUBIN, do hereby will my weakness for chasing attractive girls to FRANK DENNY.

I, LUDOLPH MARTIN, do hereby will my brief case to anyone who wishes to add to his dignity.

I, JEAN MERRICK, do hereby will my high heels to MARY POTTS.

I, BARBARA MORRISON, do hereby will my hair putting up in class to anyone who wants to flunk out.

I, SAM BLOOMER, do hereby will my sunny disposition and cheerful smile to JANET BOOBAR to carry on that service with a smile.

I, BUD COTE, do hereby will my percolator, that is my car, to BILL SMITH.

I, BILL BARDET, do hereby will my smooth way with the women to BILL CRUMP. If he wants any extra pointers, he should make an appointment.

I, BOB ARMSTRONG, do hereby will my fiddle to PAT COLLOM.

I, FRED LYON, do hereby will my theories to MR. HEVEY with which to terrify future Econ classes.

We, IRWIN WALTER, FRANKIE EACHUS, and WALTER RANDALL, do hereby will the responsibility of carrying on the traditions of the "mob" to BILL GEARHART.

We, EDITH and BETTY BLAIR, do hereby will our similarity which makes teachers grow grey, to the COOK twins.

I, JEANNE RONES, do hereby will my fatal fascination and magnetic personality to PATSY RUTH STEPHENSON.

I, BILL VAN VORIS, do hereby will my wit and humor to MR. OHLSON.

I, BARBARA STALLINGS, do hereby will my suntan to MARY HENNING.

I, HELGA SORENSON, do hereby will my blonde locks to BETTY JEAN KNIGHT.

I, JANE DOOHER, do hereby will my Harvard accent to VIVIEN JOHNSON.

I, VIRGINIA BOWMAN, do hereby will my badminton ability to BARBARA JEAN KING, the Rubin protege.

I, DICK CONVERSE, do hereby will my hair cut to MR. WATSON.

I, DERRILL MANLEY, do hereby will my high ideals to STEVE BLISS.

I, GWEN McQUAY, do hereby will my sailor suit to the navy.

I, BARBARA KEMP, do hereby will my cool and limpid green eyes to "SADIE SALMIRS" with which to bewitch Jack Gallagher.

I, DOT PLATTS, do hereby will myself to the JC boys.

I, ADRIAN WINKLER, do hereby will my dictatorship of room 19 to RUSS HACKETT, my former stooge.

We, GEORGE AND MAXINE, do hereby will our puppy love to DON HANNUM and GINGER TACKETT.

I, CHARLIE CROSS, do hereby will my French accent to AUDREY REYNOLDS.

I, HELENE HARVEY, do hereby will my LA CONGA ability to GLORIA SPARKS.

I, BOB ABBOTT, do hereby will my Barney Oldfield driving tactics and encounters with John Law to CHARLIE BARR. May he rest in peace.

I, MARIAN RASICO, do hereby will the Senior Assembly to the class of January '42. May they profit by our mistakes.

ABS-ays

By RUSS HACKETT

IT'S FINALLY HERE. After a long four and one half month chase we've finally caught up with that elusive little bit of bliss labeled Summer. The coming of summer marks the end of another eventful ABS administration notably marked by its pace-setting work in the recent bond issue.

The coming of summer also means the laying aside of a creaky typewriter from which we must extract enough words to satisfy a critical ABS cabinet. No longer will the large frame of George McLean provide up with sleepless nights; no longer will the changeable minds of that organization ruin our copy; no longer will that same McLean stalk us through the halls to force us to insert a new brainstorm of his cohorts in an already overflowing column; no longer will deadlines have to be met with a cheerful smile and no material; no longer will fierce political debates rage in the deep recesses of Room 19, for Winkler is graduating; no longer will we have to tear Bob Jenkins away from the object of his affections to secure information about an ABS assembly coming all too soon in view of our deadlines. No longer will the ABS have to worry about whether they will get any publicity on time about the right thing.

Not for another two months, anyway.

B

Vacancies Left

(Continued from page 1)

lingame High in the past two years. He has also won a scholarship to Yale and is a gold seal student.

The news department suffers the heaviest loss of all, with this graduation, in that the entire editorial staff is leaving: Editors Adrian Winkler, co-sports editors Bob Rubin and Bud Carlisle, publicity commissioner Betty Doyle, associate editor and copy-reader Jo Ann Selby, and two specialty reporters, Drury Anderson and Derrill Manley.

Senior class officers leaving are co-president Charlie Cross and Irwin Walter; Sam Bloomer and Joan Barry, vice president and secretary; and cabinet members Marian Rasico, Jack Brockhouse, Jean Mulcahey, Don George, Bob Theuer, and Mary Pat MacWilliams. Mary Pat is also editor of the year-book.

Five Seniors Are Awarded Scholarships

Five of Burlingame's 163 graduates have been awarded freshman scholarships to three bay region universities and to one eastern school.

George McLean, retiring A.B.S. president, will attend St. Mary's on a football scholarship. A.B.S.

Assemblies Chairman Bob Jenkins will enter Menlo junior college on a general sports scholarship, as will Bud Carlisle, co-sports editor of the B. Jo Ann Selby and Bill Van Voris, gold seal students, will attend University of California and Yale University, respectively.

SEEN FROM THE BENCH

Well, the big time has come for 82 of "us guys" who have inhabited Burlingame high school for the last four or more years, and in a few days freedom will be ours. Not all of us have been athletes, but we've all pulled for the Panthers in the tough spots. Even without competing we've contributed to Burlingame success.

The rise of some of the Panther athletic men have truly been spectacular. Remember the terror of the Millbrae Hills who descended on this institution. He was the wild man of that berg just north of Burlingame who hailed from Beverly Hills and headed north. Although changed a little we still recognize the horselaugh of the sadly restrained Raymond Cote.

Our Lady of the Angels grammar school sent Burlingame a bundle of winged joy in the form of bouncing George McLean, an athletic power of no mean ability when he graced the cement grounds of that institution; so the high school used the big boy to good advantage. St. Mary's will get this 220-pound manpower next fall, and big things are expected.

From Arizona, that land of the wild men, came a pair of Levi's enclosing the most spectacular legs yet to hit Burlingame. Although this cowpuncher has been here only a year-and-a-half, he has made a record to be envied by the best of men. "Dirk" should do well when he heads for the plains of Arizona this fall, and Burlingame will look for its star son when the Wildcats start rambling.

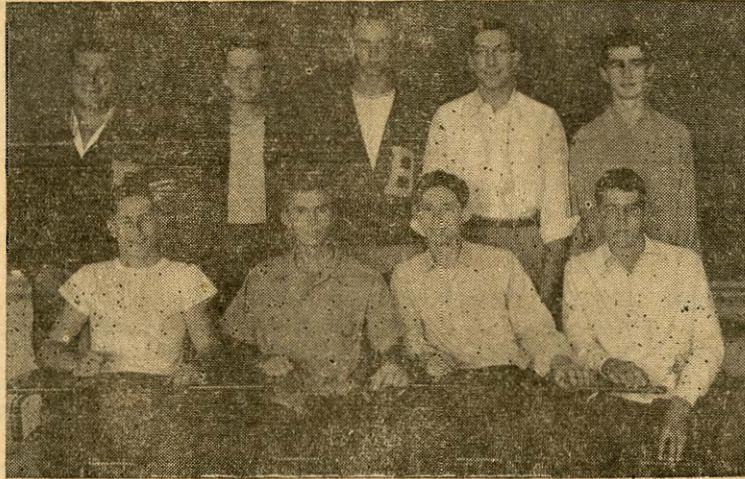

Howard contributed the great team of Stalder and Swint, but only the former graces the alma mater. Nevertheless, "Hank" has done the work of two men. One of the most versatile athletes of Burlingame, Stalder will leave not only a school record, but will leave records in sportsmanship which is difficult to equal.

Finally we have that bewildered Bruno Gulch protege, "Benny" Rubin, who has definitely carved a hole in the woodwork in the hall of fame in which to rest in the full glory of his achievements. "Rube," admittedly the working half of this page, not only has a fine athletic record, but is also famous for his extra-curricular activities.

These are only a few of the senior men of note and, there are others deserving honorable mention; but since columns are limited in length, we must close here.

SPORTS

Best Athletes in Senior Class

Pictured above are nine of the ten best athletes of the high senior class of June, 1941. Not pictured is George McLean, one of the outstanding athletes in Panther history. Reading from left to right in the top row are Pete Fena, Bob Armstrong, Bud Carlisle, Bud Cote, Ross Smith. Seated from left to right are Henie Stalder, Derrill Manley, Bob Jenkins, Dick Waldron.

Summer Athletes And Summer Not!

The coming of commencement will set approximately 13 graduating athletes adrift on a summer of idleness. What they will do after four years of hectic participation in Burlingame athletics to satisfy their lust for competition smacks of a story. Undoubtedly some will work, while others will think themselves still in school and sleep. These represent the majority of the boys. However, we shall deal with the few who intend to keep in shape during the balmy months to come.

With no difficulty at all we can picture a college-bound footballer swearing (in no uncertain terms) to be in tip-top condition, come fall. With equal lack of difficulty we can picture that same footballer basking on a well populated beach surrounded by a bevy of beautiful babes. His average day would probably contain 14 hours of sleeping, six hours of eating, and four hours of getting up. Of course this is only a rough estimate and may vary either way. A determined effort to practice a little invariably winds up as a day at the beach. In the hopes of reforming their ways we intend to formulate a plan by which the boys will not succumb to any of the temptations of summer. For this purpose we will adjourn to Searsville to take notes and discuss the situation with a fellow columnist over a stein of root beer. Nevertheless, it will probably still take a month for the athletes to the summer off their waist lines.

Sports Courage

It was a wise man who said, "America will fight her battle for peace and liberty not on a shell-pocked battleground, but on the sandlot baseball diamond and the high school and college gridiron."

Americans put great store in sports competition as a builder of real manhood. Our country has long pursued games as a source of the unique thrill of personal competition, as a means of knowing the man opposite you and how he will react "under fire." Sports also serves as the great equalizer. Class differences, racial prejudices are all forgotten in the heat of combat. A man is only as good as he is able to think coolly and act quickly.

In these troubled times sports taken on a more sinister meaning. War has grown from rumors to reality, and the greatest foundational preparation a man can have is that given him by sports, the ability to think calmly and act wisely under stress. Unscrupulous dictators would have us believe that courage caused by hate surpasses any other, but here in America we have a courage that goes deeper, a courage created by long hours of participation in all types of contests.

Those Panther athletes who graduate this Friday have the courage born of competition. If war should come to these shores, rest assured, there will be no braver more resourceful fighters than they.

B Staff Names Best Athletes Among Seniors

One of the traditions of the B sports staff each year is to pick whom it considers the outstanding athletes in the high senior class. It is fitting that the boys who have participated in athletics for four years be honored for their efforts; therefore the ten top sportsmen of the class of June, 1941 are named today.

Three definitely stand above the rest. They are George McLean, Bud Cote, and Hank Stalder. McLean played four years of truly great football for his alma mater and will definitely go down as one of the best linesmen in the history of the PAL. He also was one of the mainstays of the baseball nine, where he earned his letter for three successive seasons.

Cote is undoubtedly the most versatile athlete in the high senior class. He is the only sportsman who earned his letter in three sports. Probably his most notable achievement is that of having played first string on the football team in three different positions. He gained All-PAL recognition last season. He has also earned his block in basketball and track.

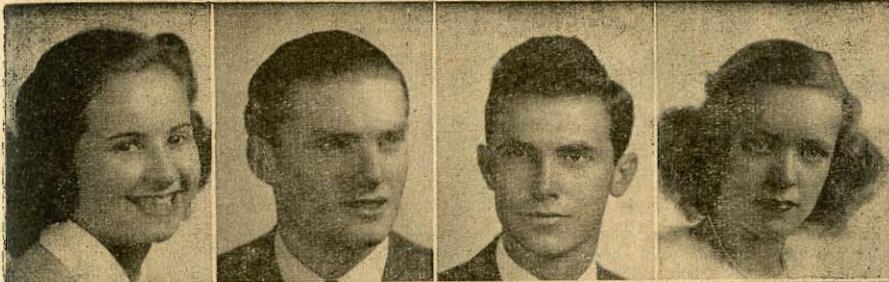

Although the smallest of the ten senior sportsmen, Stalder ranks as one of the best by virtue of his being able to do many things well. He was a star member of this year's championship 130-lb. track team and was considered one of the top trackmen in the league. He has twice won his block in basketball and is also a football player of note.

There are many other high seniors who have distinguished themselves throughout their four years of athletic life, but aside from the above mentioned three, seven others have also carved a niche for themselves in Panther athletic history. They are Bob Armstrong, basketball and track standout; Bud Carlisle, Blingum's great All-PAL casaba tosser; Pete Fena, giant football and baseball player; Bob Jenkins, outstanding grinder and trackman; Derrill Manley, a swell football player and worthy basketball; Ross Smith, a four-year standout in lightweight basketball; and Dick Waldron, one of the top hurdlers in the PAL.

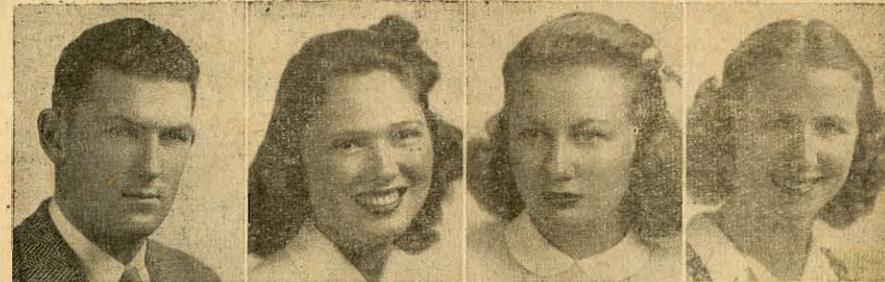

Everyone of these chosen ten not only proved to be outstanding athletes, but also displayed the highest type of sportsmanship on nearly all occasions. Champs, all ten of em!

Graduating Class

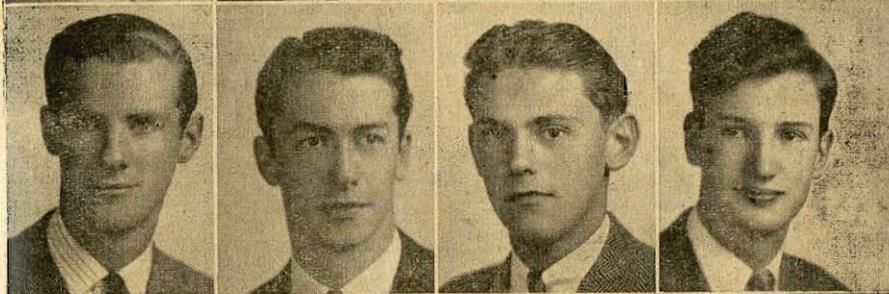

June 1941

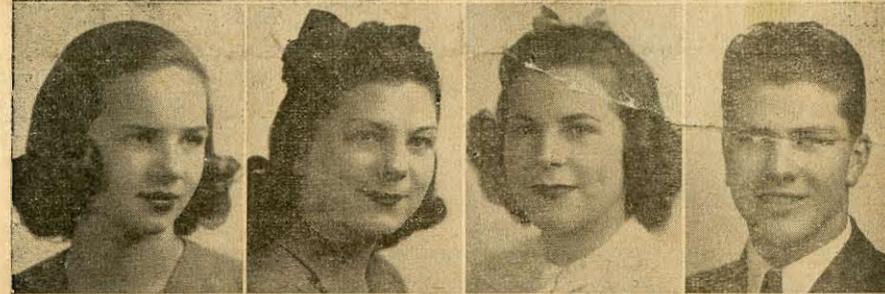

RUTH LAW
BOB LITTMAN
DERRILL MANLEY
ANNA L. McDONALD

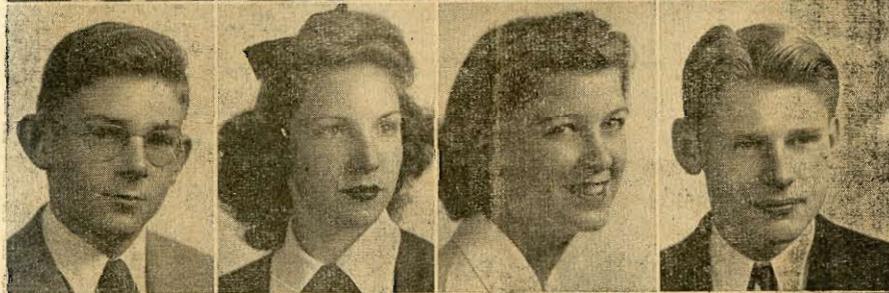

GEORGE McLEAN
BEVERLY MOGENSEN
BARBARA MORRISON
NADINE O'BRIEN

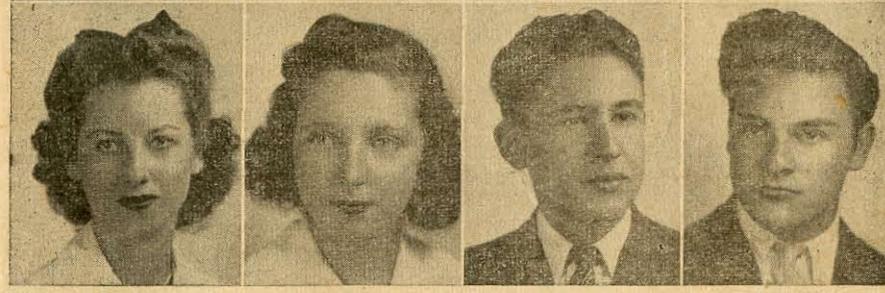

DICK LEACH
FRED LYON
LUDOLPH MARTIN
BOB McCARTHY

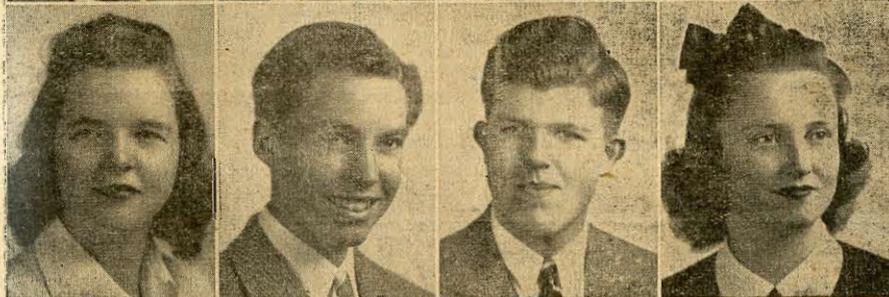

GWEN McQUAY
JEAN MONDECK
JEAN MULCAHEY
DON OHRAN

JACK LE BRUN
M. P. MACWILLIAMS
THEADATE MASKELL
RALSTON MAYER

JEAN MERRICK
EVELYN MOOSE JACK MUZIO
GUIDO PATALEONI

JANE ELLEN LEWIS
GRANT MALQUIST
R. MATSCHULLAT
MAXINE McGUIRE

JIM PARKER
ELEANOR RANKIN
DOROTHY ROGERS
MARGE SEKINS

JIM McINERNEY
VERA MILLER
DYCK MORRIS VIRGINIA NAGLE

JEANETTE PETERS
MARION RASICO
JEANNE RONES
BOB SCHWEBER

Graduating Class

June 1941

BOB ABBOTT
VIRGINIA ARNOLD
JACK BETTIS
SAM BLOOMER

BILL ALDRICH
BILL BARDET
T. BETTENCOURT
BARRY BOLDEMAN

DRURY ANDERSON
JOAN BARRY
BETTY BLAIR
PIERRE BOURET

BOB ARMSTRONG
DOROTHY BEGGS
EDITH BLAIR
VIRGINIA BOWMAN

CAROL BRILLIANT
JEAN BURNS
BUD CARLISLE
PAT COLLINS

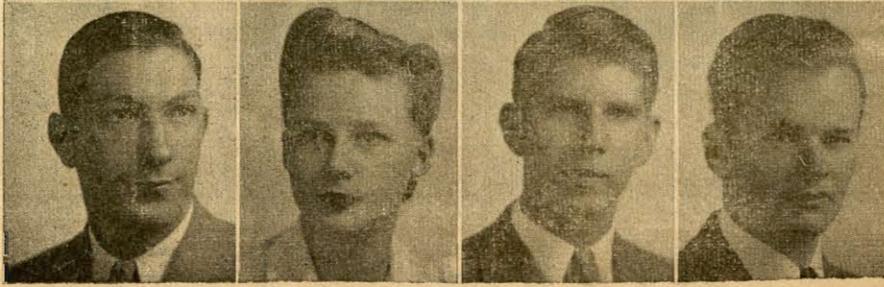

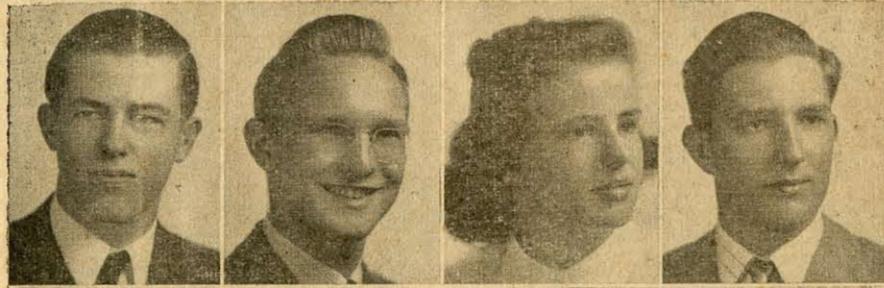

JACK BROCKHOUSE
DICK BUROW
BETTY CHAMBERLIN
CHARLES COE

BETTY BUMP
BOB BUSEY
GLORIA COATES
DICK CONVERSE

ANDREW BURNETT
DOY CAMERON
DONALD CHU
TOD COSGRIFF

BERNICE COSTA
LLOYD CROWE
JANE DOOHER
BETTY DOYLE

BUD COTE
ANN CUMMINGS
DAVE DORMEYER
GLENN DUNN

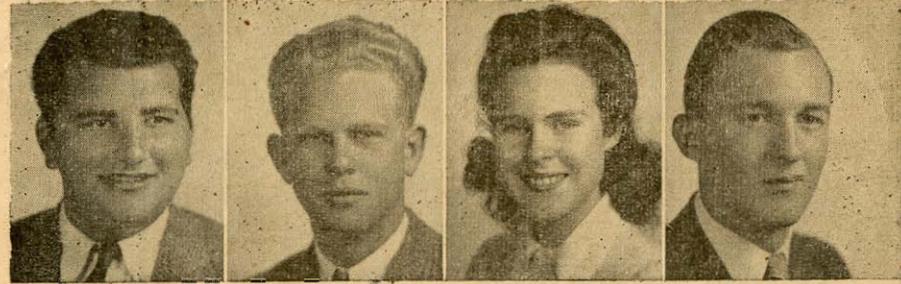

Graduating Class

June 1941

JANE COUVRETTE
BARBARA DAVIS
VIRGINIA DOSS
FRANKLIN EACHUS

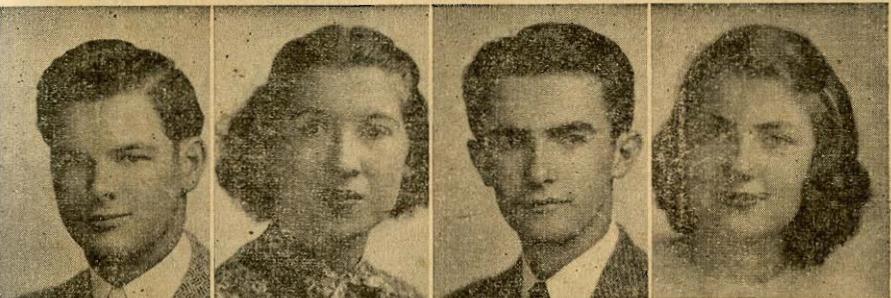

PETER FENA
DON GAYLORD
MARGARET HALL
NEWTON HARRISON

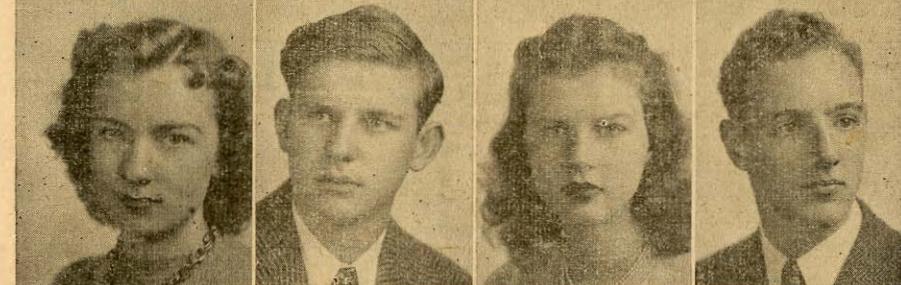

CHARLES CROSS
HELEN DICKSON
LORRAINE DOUGLAS
B. J. EDDINGFIELD

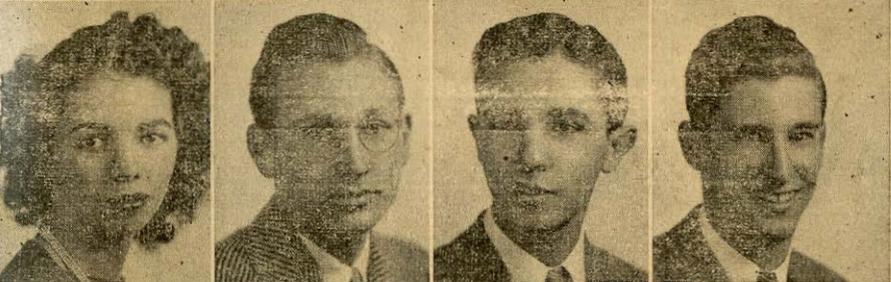

HELENE HARVEY
BOB JENKINS
RONALD KAEHLER
CORRINE LA COMBLE

MEL EISEN BARBARA FISHEL
DON GEORGE
GLORIA HANCHETT

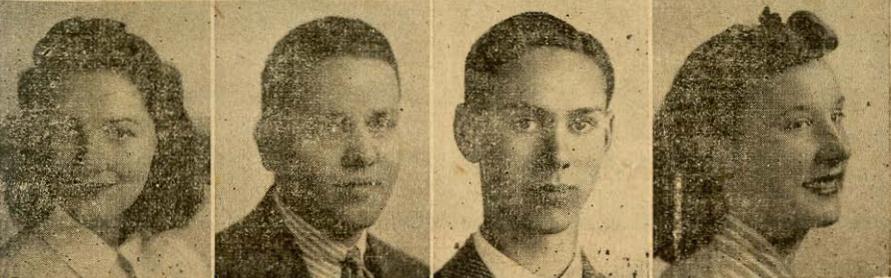

BETTY HEERMANN
LELAND JOHNSTON
JEAN KELL
JOHN LANDIS

BERNARDINE ELLIS
EARL FULLER
BOB GIBSON
BOB HANKO

JOE HOBBS AUDRHY JONES
BARBARA KEMP
DORIS LANG

SUZANNE ENNIS
LUGENE GALLAGHER
BRUCE HAIGHT
DORIS HARDMAN

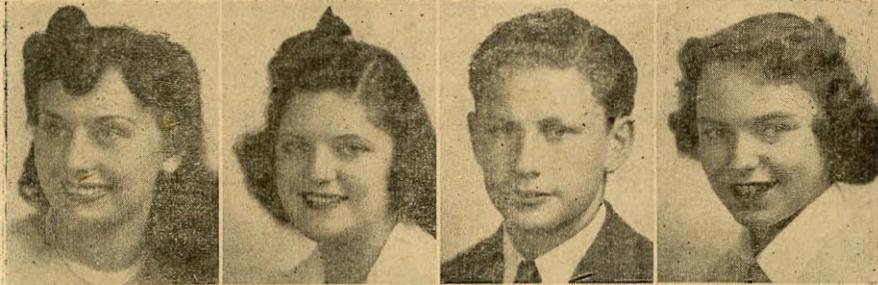

L. HUBBENETTE
F. JORGENSEN
BOB KRANZ
WILLIE LARSON

Graduating Class

June

1941

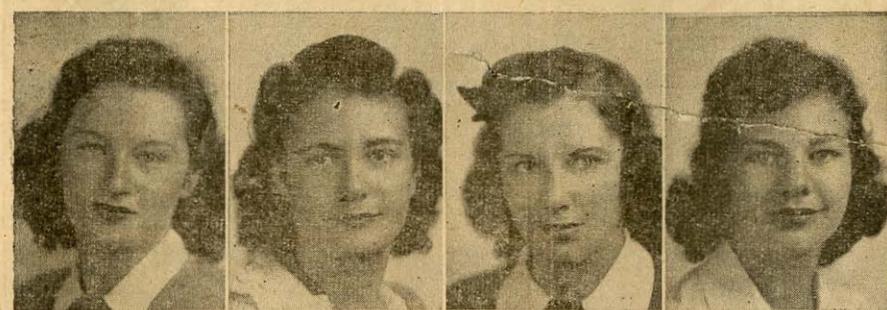

DOROTHY PLATTS
KATHLEEN REYNOLDS
BOB RUBIN
JO ANN SELBY

KIRK SMITH
BARBARA STALLINGS NANCY STREET
JACK TARBILL

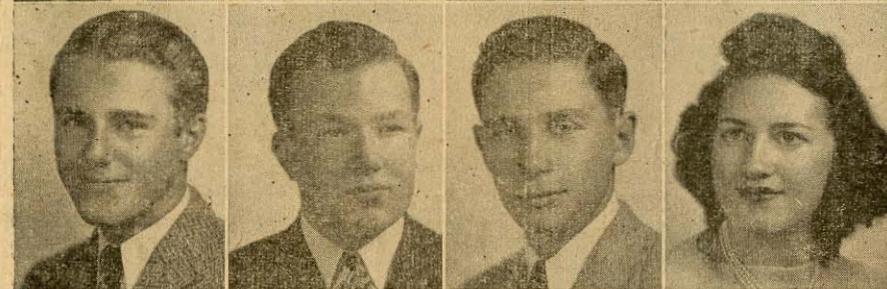

WALTER RANDALL
ERNEST RICKARD
CHRIS SCHUMACHER
JIM SELLECK

YVONNE TAYLOR
BARBARA TOWLE
MAMIE WATERS
EDITH WHEELER

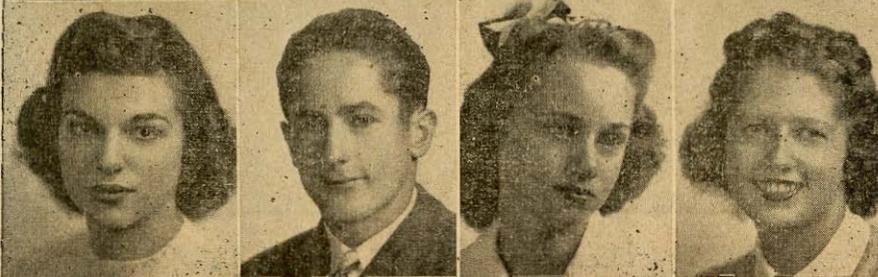

MARILYN SHERIDAN
ROSS SMITH
CORA STAYTON
DIANE SUMMERS

BOB THEUER
BILL VAN VORIS
BILL WATTS
MILO WOODWARD

WALTER SHOAFF
HELGA SORENSON
DON STODDARD
TED SURBEZ

VIRGINIA THOMAS
DIK WALDRON
LESTER WILLIAMS
FRED WRIGHT

BOBETTA SIDLOW HENRY STALDER NORMA STORY RUTH SWANSON

DON TAYLOR ANN TOMASELLI IRWIN WALTER ADRIAN WINKLER H. WURLITZER