

Tokay Calendar

SEPTEMBER

10. Upper classmen registered, and although there was an absence of green this Monday was not so blue.

FOOT BALL PRACTISE STARTS

- 11. In the first assembly Miss Davis introduced our new principal, Mr. Victor A. Rohrer. Mr. Rohrer gave a speech, announced the new schedule, and Mr. Conklin called for football recruits.
- Seven long, long periods. We enjoyed the third and fourth.
- 13. We were almost late to our first class as our bells did not choose to run.
- First class meetings during activity period. Some of the officers were elected.
- 20. Girls' Association and Ag Club met during activity period.
- 26. Assembly! First practice rally. Some new yells were led by Bill Bailey.
- 28. Preston vs. Lodi,—Score stands 27 to 0 in favor of Lodi.

OCTOBER

- 1. Bill Bailey, Jim Sanguinetti and Bill Spooner were elected yell leaders.
- 11. With the first league game approaching, we had SEVERAL WEAK LUNGS AMONG FROSH. one of the old time rallies.
- RALLIES SHOW

mating

- 12. Turlock was taken off her feet by the Lodi Flames by a score of 19 to 0.
- 18. The students assembled at the grandstand for songs and yells. They then surprised the natives of Lodi by doing a serpentine through the business district.
- 19. Sacramento, 19-Lodi, 0. Enough said.

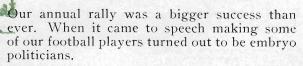

BIG SUCCESS.

- 23. Mr. Puffer of Boston gave us a very interesting talk on our future lives. We all took it to heart.
- 26. Lodi, 27-Modesto, 0. It must have been
- 31. Halloween! Even your best friend won't tell you who put the Ford on the front lawn of the science building.

NOVEMBER

- 2. It isn't luck. Our team must have IT: Lodi, 32-Richmond, 6.
- Cast for "Captain Applejack" given out .
 Davis Aggies Freshmen vs. Lodi. Good for Davis! They held the Flames down. Score 0-0.

16. Our football boys ran true to form and chalked up a score of 7 to 0 against Stockton.

HOLES FOR OUR BONFIRE

H.BALLEY

SNOW PARTIES ARE

GREAT

Inhale—report cards. Exhale—not as bad as they might be.

22. Bakersfield vs. Lodi.

25-26-27. Who broke Hartsook's lens (and we don't mean Pete Lenz)? But then who can look beautiful with the whole school standing around?

27. At 3:56 Thanksgiving vacation. Four days of no studies.

DECEMBER

- 2. How can anybody study when filled with turkey, but "On with the Show."
- 5. Impersonator entertained.

13. "Captain Applejack," big success.

20. Program given in assembly. School dismissed for rest of year. Basketball game: St. Mary's vs. Lodi.

JANUARY

6. The new year started with a bang! Ditto for some of our subjects.

8. The constitution was adopted at a student body meeting.

18. Basketball game.

21. Oral reports in civics classes. King George spoke at 3 A. M. this morning. Mr. Borst is still catching up. Do you get what we mean?

30. A double decker: Graduation and report cards. P.S. Lodi-Stockton basketball game was almost forgotten: 28-14. Judge for yourself to whom the "28" belongs.

FEBRUARY

3. We welcomed the new freshmen to our Alma Mater.

22. A good time at the "First Annual Senior Party," Washington's natal day.

"Husky" Leete must like to break into cords. He appeared with his "two-week-old" cords back from the cleaners.

28. "The Belle of Barcelona" brought to the footlights many new stars of the school, and it started some love affairs of the younger set.

MARCH

6. Howard Bailey qualified as a magician 100%.

7. "So This is London" was positively ripping! Haw! Haw! Haw!

11. After 12 P. M. Blanche Scott was the talk of the day, 00000000! An automobile bumpter.

 High Sophs "gambol on the green" in cafeteria. Whoops m'dear.

17. Murphy celebrates by doing an Irish jig up School Street.
28. During sixth and seventh periods Chester Soucek, World's Champion Amateur Typist, demonstrated to us how typing is done in the best of circles.

APRIL

4. Knicker season—Ward, Husky, and Bud appear in'm.
9. Last installment of report cards before "the end."

11. Girls' Association entertained the student body with a hilarious program.

11. Essay contest sponsored by the Credit Bureau, completed.

12. Orchestra entered contest at Sacramento.

18. Ag judging contest at Davis.22. Open house, 7:00 to 9:30 P. M.

25. The Girls' Association gave their annual tea. No tea was spilled down the ladies' backs.

26. Twelfth Annual Sacramento Valley Typwriting Contest.

27.-May 3. Better Home Week.

MAY

2. Tokay vaudeville show:

Pat Murphy

SEVEN

3. Shakespeare contest at Modesto.

4-10. National Music Week.

22-23-24. Junior Lions' Convention. My, my, but there are a lot of boys around.

29. Band and orchestra gave a public concert.

30. Memorial Day.

31. Junior-Senior reception enjoyed by all.

JUNE

6. Class Night.

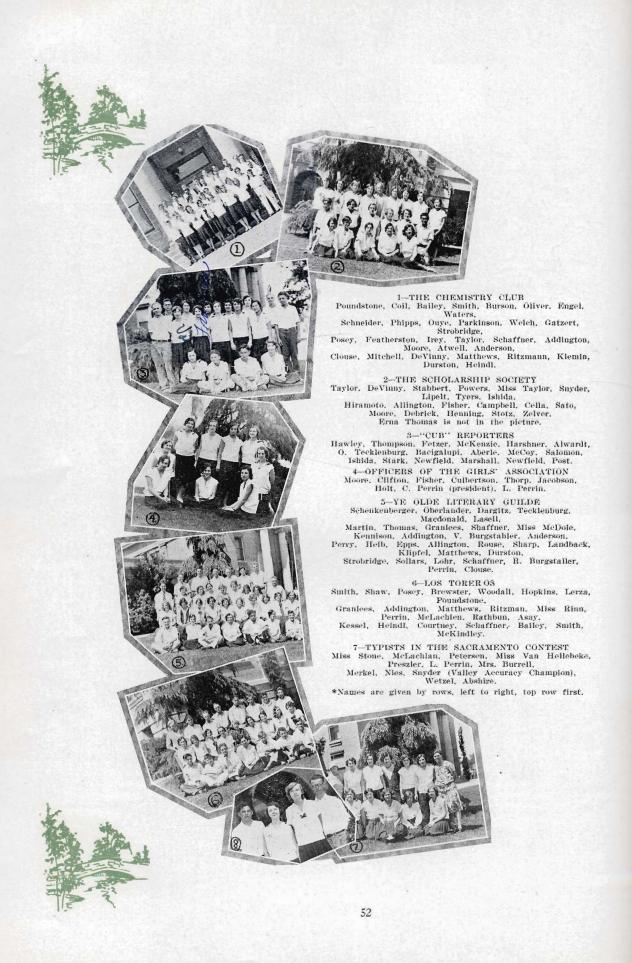

8. Baccalaureate.

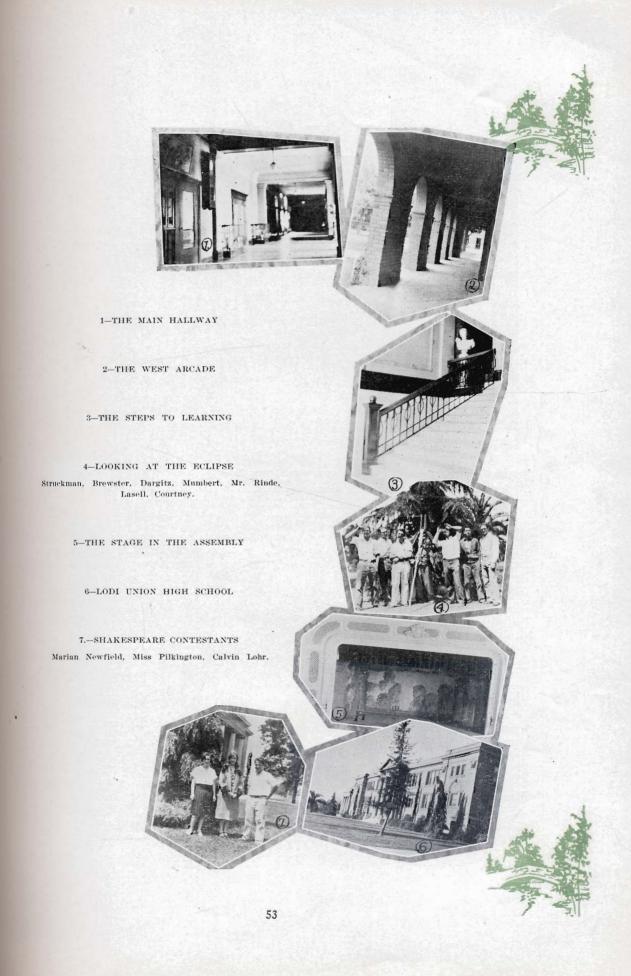

12. Graduation!

A NEW INDOOR SPORT 13. Keep your fingers crossed and carry a rabbit's foot until next September. Friday, the thirteenth!

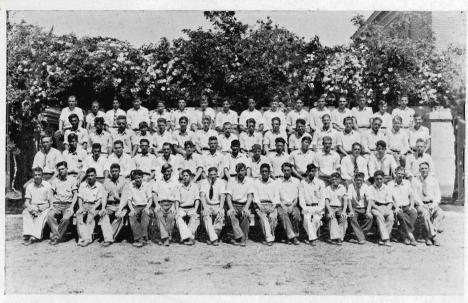

A NOTE OF APPRECIATION

For courtesy shown in evaluating the stories and poems appearing in this annual, the staff wishes to express appreciation to Miss Cara M. Finney and her associates from Sacramento Junior College and to Doctor Arthur Bonner, Doctor Gertrude Sibley, Professors Marie Breniman and Martha Pierce, and Miss Elfa Livoni of the College of the Pacific.

Aq Club

Aq Club

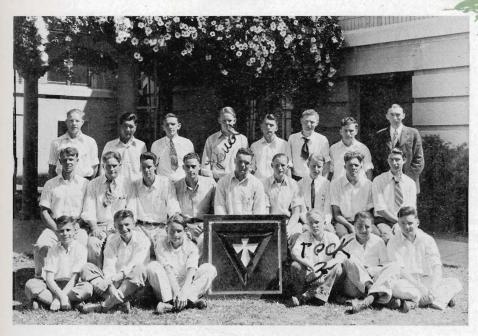

Thompson, Klemin, Asbrone, Binger, Culbertson, Bava, Stokes, Leventini, Berner, Merkel, R. Mettler, Vert, Veraguth, Berryman, Clow, Hawley, Sato, Iwamura, Anderson, H. Mettler, A. Mettler, Struckman, Holmes, Frey, Pierce, Fillhardt, I. Mettler, Struckman, C. Moore, L. Moore, Weaver, DeVinny, Hoffman, Pirie, Kiriaze, Alexander, R. Mettler, Burnett, K. Marshall, L. Eugel, Marshall, Faber, Botts, Pirie, Scott, Welsh, Hanna, Spafford, Vallem, Woodson, Nepote, Sobskawski, Harris, Callow, Meier, Hart, Schmiedt, Tanaka, Campbell, Matsuhiro, L. Marshall, Schaffer, Loney, Warnke, Dickman,

Chapter No. 1 of the Future Farmers of America started off well this year. The Dairy Products and Dairy Cattle team went to St. Louis to the National Dairy Show, where they competed with teams from all over the United States. The team, as a whole, did exceedingly well in winning the National Championship in milk. William Piric was high man of the United States. Howard Anderson and Lowell Woodson were third and eighth respectively. On the way home the boys-William Pirie, Howard Anderson, Lowell Woodson, and Carl Binger-with Coach Herman Diekman visited the Grand Canyon of the Colorado.

A number of the agriculture boys took fat animals to the San Francisco Live Stock and Baby Beef Show. About $1700 was taken in prizes and profits on the animals. A few of the boys had a little hard luck in having their stock culled out. They received top prices for their animals anyway.

December 6, the Livestock Judging team journeyed to Los Angeles, where they judged at the Los Angeles Christmas Fat Stock Show. The team consisting of Knox Marshall, Peter Marshal, Lloyd Engel, and Charles Faber won first. Lloyd Engel placed second high man of the contest and Peter Marshall placed third high man. While the boys were there they took a sightseeing tour of Beverly Hills. They also visited the Cudahey Packing Plant.

March 14, an initiation was held for the new Greenhands. The event was marked by both ceremony and comedy. After the main ceremony such stunts as pudding feeding, pie eating, and the long march were indulged in. Hî-Y

Hi-Y Boys

Wilburn, Ouye, Phipps, Fry, Dargitz, Houston, McKindley, Murphy, McClure, Courtney, Hatch, Allington, Strobridge, Burson, Weaver, Wilburn, Martin, Clouse, Crete, Reese, Tecklenburg, Lohr, Thorp.

The Hi-Y organization made its first appearance in Lodi High School in October when it held its first meeting. The members are high school students, and have as their objective to lead better Christian lives.

The meetings of this term were held every two weeks, when the boys always had a very sociable time eating supper together.

The programs consisted of Hi-Y songs, yells, speeches by members of the club, discussion of the boys' problems, or a talk by some outstanding man of the community on subjects pertaining to the ideals and activities of the organization. Dale Dargitz, as program chairman, planned many worthwhile programs.

During the year several trips were taken to points of interest. One very delightful trip was taken to the Melones dam and power house. Another trip was a visit to the Hi-Y meeting in Stockton, a return visit. Hi-Y delegates attended the state meeting at Asilomar in November. Some of the members participated in the county meeting in Stockton in May.

The work of the organization was aided by Mr. E. M. Bunnell, Boys'

Secretary of the Stockton Y. M. C. A. and the Stockton Hi-Y Club.

The sponsors of the club were Mr. R. B. Steyer and Mr. J. F. Blakely, representing the business men of the town and Mr. V. A. Rohrer, Mr. Everett Spafford and Mr. Malcolm Murphy of the high school.

The officers for the past year were president, Gerald Strobridge; vicepresident, Paul McClure; secretary, Charles Crete; treasurer, Gerald Clouse.

High School Band

The Band

Hintz, Schmierer, Strobel, Walters, Scott, Mettler, Heffley, Stabbert,
Lohr, Bohnet, Veit, Beckman, Hart, Wilburn, Wright, Weaver,
Halsey, Woods, Sanquinetti, Salomon, Morrison, Mettler, Sweeney,
Hellwig, Matsuhiro, Theil, Reese, M. Davis, Dunton, Wann, Cusumano, Waters, W. Davis, Petersen, Watson.

The band under Mr. Halsey's baton has given several delightful concerts this year. Besides these concerts, the band voluntarily participated in the Armistice Day parade, the Memorial Day services, supplied the music for the football games, and assisted at the mid-term and June graduation exercises. A program was also given at the American Legion picnic.

The band and orchestra formed a joint club this year called the B. N. O. club, for the purpose of creating mutual friendship among the fellow members. This aim was accomplished by having social times together.

The officers elected were president, Kenneth Weaver; vice-president, Katherine Powers; secretary-treasurer, Ruth Peterson; manager, Kenneth Hellwig.

L. U. H. S. Orchestra

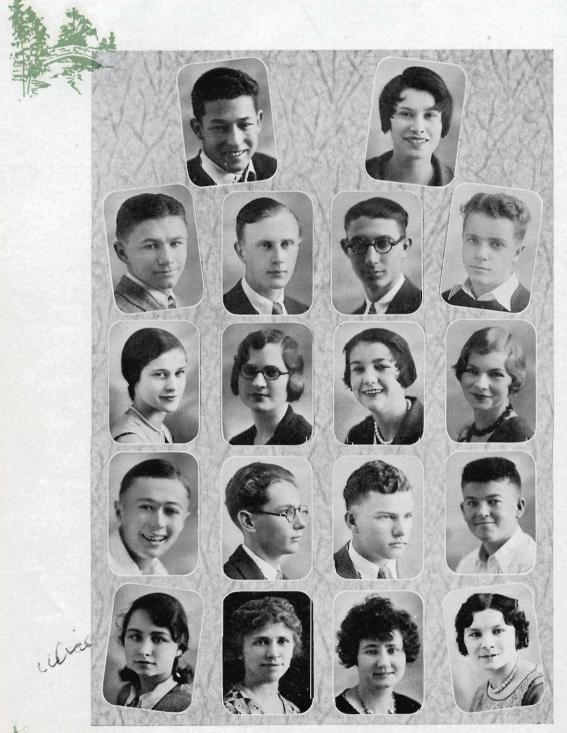

The Orchestra

Walters, Matsuhiro, Dunton, Wann, Cusumano, Davis, Viet, Bohnet, Strobel, Hintz Burson, Gouldy, Gilette, Jackson, Rankin, Wilson, Theil, Moran, Sanguinetti, Salomon, Mettler Halsey, Helwig, Waters, Koenig, Smithson, Powers, Harshner, Peterson Thommen, Field, Beckman, Scott, Watson.

The orchestra under the direction of Mr. Sidney Halsey has made great progress this year, as was proved when they entered the state contest at Sacramento. The orchestra was entered in the Class A group and gave the winning orchestra, the Sacramento orchestra, a lot of competition. Lodi placed second. The score was 95% to 93%. Sacramento won two points on orchestration.

This group of musicians gave a concert at the Ione School of Industry where their music was highly acclaimed. The orchestra assisted the chorus in the presentation of some selections from "Faust" on May 29. Many strenuous hours of practice were put in for this program but the great success of the orchestra has well rewarded the members for their efforts.

Tokay Staff

Lawrence Poundstone, editor; Leona McLachlan, assistant editor
Crete, ass't, bas, mgr.; Waters, sonps; Martin, art; Smith, bus, mgr.
Perria, exchanges; Dicknan, typing; Dutsebe, athletics; Beckman, calendar
Bailey, athletics; Schenkenberger, jokes; McKindley, organizations; Marshall, agriculture
Field, alumni; Miss McDole, adviser; Miss Bauron, art adviser; Stotz, dramatics

Flame Staff

Addington, associate editor; Schaffner, editor; Tecklenburg, business manager
Thompson, Baird, Allington, Scott
Perrin, Thorp, Graham, Snyder, Strobridge
Wencel, Courtiney, Granlees, Woodson, Pruitt
Matthews, Mettler; Miss Mendenball, adviser; Marshall, Bacigalupi

1929-Prize Winners-1930

LODI RATING BUREAU ESSAY CONTEST

Junior-Senior Group

First prize, $7.50, "Charge It, Please", Margaret Allington, '30. Second prize, $5.00, "The Evolution of Credit", Catherine Holt, '31. Freshman-Sophomore Group

Firs tprize, $5.00, "An Encounter with Credit", Kathryn Graham, '33. Second prize, $2.50, "Charge It, Please", Edith McKenzie, '32.

NATIONAL ORANGE SHOW POSTER CONTEST, SAN BERNARDINO

Third prize, $10.00, Marcella Thorp

TOKAY PRIZES

First prize for cut in color, $5.00, "Woodbridge Bridge", Stanley Martin. First prize for cut in black and white, $5.00, "Lockford Bridge", Cecilia Perrin.

Honorable mention for cuts:

"Bridge near Constable's Home" Cecilia Perrin
"Tower Bridge" Ezra Ehrhardt
"Wye Bridge" Stanley Martin
"Shepperd's Dell Bridge" Mildred Groft
"The Stilts" Truth McCoy
"Bridge in Venice" Violet Burgstahler
"Pontoon Bridge" Marcia Zelver
Inside cover design Marie Graffigna

For block letters: Jean Van Buskirk, Leona McLachlan, Lorraine Keson, Evelyn Roseberry.

POETRY

First prize, $2.00, "The Dance of the Daffodil", Dorothy Van Gelder, '32. Second prize, $1.00, "Sunrise", Helen Matthews, '30. Honorable mention: "Through the Stillness of Night", Lillian Wall. "Frail Beauty", Helen Matthews, '30.

STORIES

First prize, $4.00, "The Fuse Plug Murder", Gardner Young, '31. Second prize, $2.00, "The Green Parcel", Gerhardt Stabbert, '31. Honorable mention: "Buried Damnation", Art Struckman, '30.

AGRICULTURE

Davis Chamber of Commerce Sweepstakes Plaque for high score, Davis Picnic.

Governor Young Trophy for highest cumulative score, Davis Picnic. Lodi Chamber of Commerce Plaque for winning National Milk Judging contest at National Dairy Show, St. Louis, Mo.

Hotel Anderson Trophy for winning State Championship in tree judging. Los Angeles Union Stock Yards Trophy for high team in judging Fat Stock at Los Angeles.

Victica Trophy for high team in judging grapes, Davis.

California Milk Distributors Ass'n Trophy for high team in judging milk, Davis Picnic.

TYPING

Chas. Anderson Trophy for high team in corn, Davis Picnic.

Sacramento Valley Typing Contest, Sacramento, Sacramento Bee Accuracy Trophy, second-year event, Elinor Snyder. Fourth place in speed, Elinor Snyder. Fifth place in speed, Hugh McKenzie.

Reba Gordon	40	100% Bronze	Pin
Gertrude Shoemaker	40	100% Bronze	Pin
Elinor Snyder	61	Gold	Pin
Elinor Snyder
Martha Jacobsen	54	Silver	Pin
Hugh McKenzie	53	Silver	Pin
Laura Merkel	51	Silver	Pin
Gladys Dickman	50	Silver	Pin
Martha Preszler	50	Silver	Pin

Exchanges

- "Blue and White", Los Angeles-Unique art.
- "Buccaneer", Modesto Junior College.-Very slever snaps.
- "Cereal", Ceres.—Clever cartoons.
- "Dictum Est", Red Bluff.-Cuts exceedingly good.
- "The Franciscan", San Francisco State Teachers' College.—Clever calendar.
 - "Gold and White", Sutter.—Amusing snaps.
 - "Green and Gold", Livermore.—Small, but all there.
 - "Greenback Notes", San Juan Hi.—Interesting theme.
 - "Guard and Tackle", Stockton.—An attractive annual.
 - "Linden Leaves", Linden.-Good literary section.
 - "Pioneer", Sacramento Junior College.-Good art.
 - "Potpourri", Placer Hi.-Very clever book.
 - "Quill", Nevada City.-Interesting "Literary" department.
 - "Skip", Sutter Creek.—Clever "Exchange" section.
 - "Stray Leaves", Grass Valley.—All around good book.
 - "Sycamore", Modesto Hi.—Original "Feature" section.
- "Tale of the Tiger", San Luis Obispo.—Good "Organizations" department.

Alumnî

A survey of the new arches added to the Lodi Union High School Bridge of Fame reveals the fact that much time and hard work has been expended in earning these arches. The Lodi Union High School is very proud of them. Among those who have striven for high achievement are the following:

Roy Brown, '29, has entered the United States Navy and is radio operator on the battleship, Oklahoma.

Vernon Hurd, '25, has been elected president of the Class of 1930, at the College of the Pacific.

Louis Newman, '28, is a member of the freshman crew at the University of California.

Wendell Gannon, '27, is president of the Class of 1930, at the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis.

Harvey Jackson, '29, is an entertainer on the ship, Mauniwilli bound for Manilla.

Tony Donadio, '29, is on the football team at Sacramento Junior College.

Lydia Wassink, '25, has won a second scholarship at U. C.

Clifton Montgomery, '24, member of Phi Beta Kappa was recently elected to Coif, the highest national honor society in law.

Louis Pitto, '26, a member of the 'Varsity football squad at the University of California for two years, was graduated in May.

Richard Grussendorf, '24, is stationed in Honolulu in The Army Air Service.

Jack Happe, '29, is a member of the football team at Sacramento Junior College.

Katharine Davis, '27, has been elected secretary of the student body of the College of the Pacific, for the coming year.

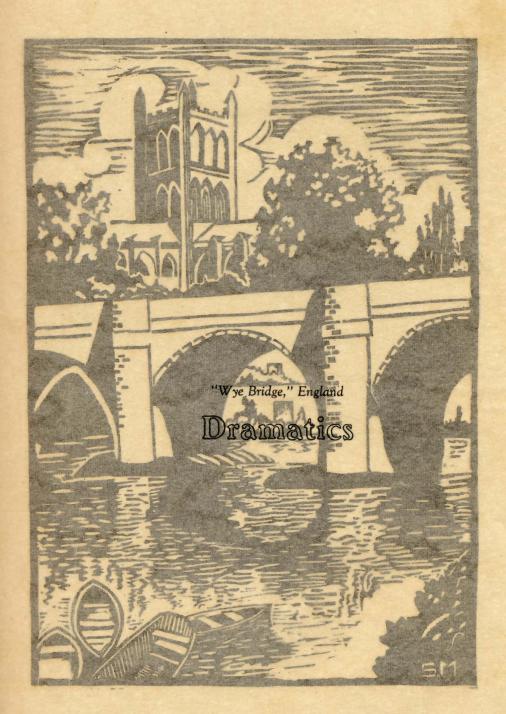

Adelbert Gillespie, '29, is a member of the football team at Davis.

Alice Hatch, '24, is studying at the Eastman Conservatory of Music, in Rochester, New York.

The 1930 officers of the Alumni Association are Mrs. Fenton Wright, '11, president; Mrs. Margaret Devine, '19, vice-president; Anna Devine, '29, secretary; Fred Snyde, '24, treasurer.

In February, Mrs. Wright accompanied by Mrs. Hazel Wilkinson and Mrs. Margaret Devine gave a program in the high school music room, for the mid-year graduating class of 1930. Mrs. Wright issued an invitation then, to that class, to attend the annual reception to be given in June, 1930.

During the Commencement season, the alumni also welcomed the June class into membership.

Captain Applejack

Cast for Captain Apylejack

Taylor, Poundstone, Shaw, Woodall, Woodson, Dohrety, Thomas, Leete, Beckman, Graham, Tecklenburg, Perrin, Marshall, Holt, Miss Strate, Bailey, McLachlan, Wilson.

Captain Applejack was presented December 13, 1929, by members of the Lodi Union High School student body. Howard Bailey as Ambrose Applejohn, the respectable citizen who wanted to seek adventure, and Lucille Beckman as Poppy Faire, Ambrose Applejohn's ward and the girl he fell in love with in the end, led the cast.

Catherine Holt played the part of Mrs. Agatha Whatcombe, the aunt who "could not understand why Ambrose should want to sell this house."

Oliver Tecklenburg was Lush, the perfect butler of few words.

Laura Perrin as Anna Valeska gave vivid presentations of a French girl, a Portuguese senorita, and the wife of an American crook. Woodrow Wilson, as Ivan Borolsky, was her husband, "the greatest safe-cracker in the United States." Peter Marshall as Dennett, the cop, added much to the comedy of the play.

Malcolm Graham was Johnny Jason, a friend of Ambrose Applejohn.

Margaret Taylor was Palmer, the maid.

The pirates: Roscoe Shaw, John Doherty, Horace Woodall, Clifford Gatzert, Lawrence Poundstone, Carl Thomas, and Delmar Woodson, with their various weapons at least looked the part of pirates.

To Miss Eleanor Strate, the director of this play, goes the credit for its success.

Between the acts and after the play, the orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Sydney Halsey, played several numbers. Between the second and third acts the High School Quartette, under the direction of Mrs. Edith Story, rendered two numbers.

*The Belle of Barcelona"

Operetta Cast

Newfield, McKindley, Fetzer, Groft, Salaun, Salomon, Emde, Koenig. Strobridge, Bergstabler, Lerza, Dargitz, Thorp, McKindley, Hatch, Newman, Culbertson, Lobr, Storla, Donald, Peterson, Rabunsin, Kern, Bacigalupi, McCoy, Ashley, Wilkinson.

On Friday, February 28, the Music Department presented "The Belle of Barcelona," a Spanish operetta, before a full house.

Marcella Thorp, as Margarita de Montero, and Mahlon McKindley, as Lieutenant Harold Wright, the leading characters, presented their parts marvelously.

Ruben Burgstahler and Dora Lerza were the de Monteros, Margarita's aristocratic parents, who were so ambitious for her to marry a nobleman. Francis Culbertson, as Mercedes, and Calvin Lohr, as Emilio, the great Spanish toreador, and a suitor for Mercedes, charmingly portrayed their parts. Dale Dargitz was Francisco de la Vega, who claimed to be a nobleman, and who sought the hand of Margarita. Laurence Hatch was "Pedro," the "woedejected" manager. Viola Koenig as Martha Matilda Ayres, an English governess, and Gerald Strobridge as Patrick ("Pat") Malone, a policeman in the end, furnished all the comedy necessary to make the play a success.

Minor characters were Don Juan and Don Jose played by Stanley Martin and Herbert Loefellbein, and Dona Marcela and Dona Anita played by Erna Fetzer and Marion Newfield, and also Raymond Mettler as Captain Colton, of the cruiser Montana.

The chorus of Spanish students and United States Marines, and the group of Spanish dancers furnished a colorful background for the operetta.

Margarita while in the United States met Harold at a ball given in honor of a Spanish gentleman in the United States at that time. As suddenly as she met him she disappeared, leaving no address. While on an inspection tour of the Customs House in Spain, Harold met her and their romance was renewed. He then learned of her engagement, against her will, to Senor de la Vega. He determined to free her and succeeded. The operetta ended with the ringing of wedding bells proclaiming the engagement of Margarita and Harold.

Mrs. Story and Mr. Sidney Halsey directed the music while Miss Helen Fortmann coached the speakers. The operetta was acclaimed an unusual success.

"The Goose Hangs High"

The Cast, Senior Play
Martin, Woodall, Thorp, Scott, Baird, Dargitz
Schaffner, Kennison, Ströbridge, Mettler
Bailey, Granlees, Beckman

"The Goose Hangs High," was presented as the senior play by members of the Senior Class on Class Night, June 6, 1930.

The characters were as follows:

Eunice, the mother
Bernard, the father
Noel Derby, a friend of BernardStanley Martin
Leo Day, "a climber, trying to get in"Gerald Strobridge
Rhoda, the faithful servant
Julia, a fashionable society lady and cousin of BernardAudrey Kennison
Granny, mother of Eunice
Ronald, son of Julia
Hugh, Lois, Bradley, three children of Eunice and Bernard
John Thorp, Lucille Beckman, Howard Bailey
Dagmar, financee of HughBlanche Scott
Kimberley, business enemy of Bernard
Beulah Baird, Horace Woodall and Elizabeth Granlees deserve especial mention for their portrayal of difficult parts.

Miss Ida Rinn directed the play most efficiently.

Plays in Assembly

"The Doctor in Spite of Himself"

"The Doctor in Spite of Himself" by Moliere was presented by members of the fourth-year English class, belonging to "Ye Olde Literary Guilde", before an assembly of students. Everyone enjoyed the performance, which was highly humorous. The play was given mainly to bring to the attention of the students the work being done by "Ye Olde Literary Guilde", which is a new organization.

The characters were Sganerelle, Calvin Lohr; Martine, his wife, Elizabeth Granlees; M. Robert, Dale Dargitz; Lucas, Marion Lasell; Valere, Ed Oberlander; Lucinde, Cecilia Perrin; Lucinde's father, Ruben Burgstahler; Geronte, her lover, Gerald Strobridge; the nurse, Helen Schaffner.

The play was under the direction of Miss Elizabeth McDole.

"Los Toreros"

"Uno de Los Debe Cassarse", a Spanish play, was presented by members of the second-year Spanish class who belong to "Los Toreros" a Spanish club organized by this class. Although many of the students who heard the play were unable to understand the Spanish language, the characters acted their parts so well that the students could comprehend most of the meaning.

The character were Tia Maria, Helen Schaffner;; Sr. Professor Juan Riuz, Howard Bailey; Sr. Professor Diego Riuz, Ward Smith; Luisa, Laura Perrin.

The play was under the direction of Miss Ida Rinn.

Vaudeville

Members of the student body of the Lodi Union High School on May 2 gave a short play entitled "Sauce for the Goslings," in the assembly. The members of the cast were Mr. Malcolm Murphy, Miss Hortense Van Hollebecke, Cecile Mumbert, Lucille Beckman, Malcolm Graham, Gladys Schomo.

After the play a vaudeville show was put on by members of the chorus class and others. Some of the members who took part in the vaudeville were Howard Bailey, proprietor of a music store; Marion Lasell, who wanted some numbers for a musical program, and Calvin Lohr, the singing janitor. Lucille Beekman, John Watson, Virginia Curry, Viola Koenig, and other members rendered pleasing numbers. Hesty Gouldy was the pianist and Lucian Morrison accompanied on the violin.

Two outstanding features were the girls' chorus, "Singing in the Rain," and the tap dancing by Betty Jean Ashley and Winifred Wilkinson.